TURKEYS PLENTIFUL AND CHEAP

Over 65,000 Pounds of Christmas Fowl at One House

Prices Down Ten Cents; Geese and Chicken Selling the Same as Last Year

With one wholesale house alone receiving over 65,000 pounds of turkeys, ducks and geese during the Christmas season, it is no wonder that the city is flooded with the birds. As announced previously turkey prices are far below those of last year. Wholesale are offering gobblers at from twenty-nine to thirty-seven cents this season, while last year similar grades went at from thirty-nine to forty-seven cents a pound. On the retail market the price for this bird ranges between thirty-five and forty-five cents a pound, against forty-five to sixty cents last year. Ducks are slightly dearer on the wholesale market this season. They are now offered at thirty-seven cents a pound. On the retail stalls they are being sold at forty-five cents. Geese range between thirty-five and thirty-two cents a pound wholesale, and sell at a flat rate of thirty-eight cents retail. Chicken remains virtually the same. Huge navel oranges, running only eighty to the case, are finding considerable popularity on the fruit markets of the city. These unusually large varieties have been called Santa Claus oranges. On the wholesale market they are going at $3.50 a crate, while retailers are disposing of them at ten cents apiece. The last shipment of Japanese oranges arrived on the coast only eighty to the case. Although no further consignments will be coming into the city, there are enough on hand to assure consumers of an ample supply until well after Christmas. A car of navel oranges arrived from California last Friday and found a ready sale among the merchants of the city. Christmas fruits and vegetables moved briskly to-day.

Brighouse, Dec. 16.—James Tilton, aged sixty-nine, brother of John Tilton, former reeve of Richmond, and a resident of Lulu Island for forty years, died early Sunday at his home here. Mr. Tilton spent Saturday in Vancouver and on returning home complained of feeling unwell. He retired and apparently died in his sleep.

Skeletons of Primitive Men Are Found in China

Peking China, Dec. 16.—Scientists to-day hinted that ten skeletons unearthed simultaneously with an unbroken skull found in the quarries of Chao Outien, ten miles from here, might be the nearest approach yet made to finding the ancestors of the human race. The skull was unearthed by a Chinese geologist, who claimed it belonged to a species of the famous Peking Man, said to be associated with the period of the Pliocene and the Java Ape Man. SEARCH CONTINUED While the scientists who knew the secrets were sworn to secrecy, it was understood here they regarded the discovery as a great find. (Continued on Page 11)

Vancouver, Dec. 16.—Six Canadian airmen who have been chosen for the search of Alaska and Siberia ice wastes in an attempt to rescue Carl Ben Eielson, Arctic flier, and his mechanic, who have been missing since November 9, are expected to reach Vancouver in the next few days.

Although the pilots themselves are anxious to assemble at least one plane and fly it north from Vancouver, it is considered probable all three planes prepared to take part in the search will be transported to Alaska aboard the United States coastguard cutter Chelan, now outfitting in Seattle for the relief expedition.

There are a number of difficulties in the way of a direct flight from Vancouver to Alaska, including that of obtaining proper gasoline and oil supplies en route and that of changing from floats to skis in the north. The pilots themselves are expected to leave the proposal to fly at least one machine north immediately, but Major Howard O. Decker of the Fairchild Aviation Corporation, who is now in Seattle to direct the dispatch of the three planes to Alaska, believes they should go by steamer.

LED BY OAKS The party of Canadian pilots is headed by Captain H. A. Oaks of Winnipeg, director of the Northern Aerial Mineral Exploration Limited, who will take charge of the search in Alaska. Other Winnipeg pilots include Captain B. W. Broach and T. M. "Pat" Reed. Ontario Air Service pilots who are coming from Toronto to take part in the search are Clifford Swartman, Hector Polmney and William Hicks.

Seattle, Dec. 16.—The coastguard cutter Chelan was in readiness here to-day to convey three Fairchild planes and six Canadian pilots north to aid in the search for Pilot Carl Ben Eielson and his steamer.

BALTIMORE FIRE CAUSE OF DEATHS

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 16.—At least four persons died to-day in a fire in the four-story plant of the Thomas H. O'Connor Wastepaper Company in the downtown railroad district of Baltimore. Firemen recovered three bodies from the building and another victim, whose back was broken in a leap from a third-story window, died in a hospital.

Vermont Railway Reorganization Plans Are Approved

Washington, Dec. 16.—Approval of the reorganization plans of the Central Vermont Railway was given to-day by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The Central Vermont Railway Inc., a subsidiary of the Canadian National Railway, was authorized to issue $10,000,000 of common capital stock, $5,000,000 of Series A debentures, and $10,000,000 of first and general mortgage gold bonds for the purpose of acquiring the property formerly owned by the Central Vermont Railway Company.

Consuls Are Halted On Trip In Manchuria

Chinese Delay Officials Seeking Safety of Nationals Where Russians Are Consuls Not Allowed to Travel Into Area Soviet Troops Occupy

Tokio, Dec. 16.—Rengo News Agency dispatches to-day said the international train carrying consuls of several nations into northwestern Manchuria, where they hoped to learn the fate of their nationals in the area occupied by Soviet troops, had been halted by Chinese military when it attempted to leave Minethu.

The consuls, who represent Great Britain, Japan, the United States, Germany and France, protested vigorously at the interference, but the military would not let the train proceed westward. On last available reports the train was still at Minethu.

Chinese soldiery, retreating from renewed Russian drives in northwestern Manchuria, were reported to have formed their base at Minethu in the Khingnan Mountains, 120 kilometres from Kharin. The Chinese commander at Minethu warned the consuls against proceeding westward when their train arrived there last Saturday.

Continued silence regarding the nationals of several countries in the territory occupied by the Russians led to formation of the international train. The Government here received a message from its consul at Manchuria reporting the safety of a few persons. The fact that the message was numbered nine, and that there are nearly 300 Japanese subjects in the district, has led officials to believe the consuls' messages were being suppressed or lost. Some doubt was expressed officially on the worth of Russian assurances of the safety of foreigners and the Government here asked Russia for details concerning them.

PATTULLO NOW MENTIONED IN CABINET TALK

Rumors of Federal Changes Include B.C. Liberal Leader

Ottawa, Dec. 16.—After a busy week devoted to long discussions of the prairie natural resources questions, the Cabinet did not meet to-day and will not meet to-morrow. Meetings will, however, be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. With the natural resources problem cleared up as far as Manitoba and Alberta are concerned, it is understood that Ministers will devote their attention once more to preparing for the coming session of Parliament.

CABINET CHANGES

Cosip respecting Cabinet appointments is still in evidence. It is now suggested the Immigration Department will be merged with the Department of the Interior and that Hon. Charles Stewart, head of the latter department, will administer both. It is pointed out that if the legislation handing over the natural resources to Manitoba and Alberta passes the Legislature and the House of Commons, considerable work will be lifted from the shoulders of Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior. He would then, it is suggested, be in a position to assume control of the Immigration Department. (Continued on Page 3)

Man Murders Family And Wounds Self

Bodies of His Wife and Seven Children Found in Three Rivers, Que., Home

Three Rivers, Que., Dec. 16.—A mother and her seven children were found dead in three different rooms of their home here by police early this morning. They had been killed during the night in the beds in which they slept. The mother was Mrs. Andrew Day. The children ranged in age from one to fourteen years. The father of the family, Andrew Day, said by neighbors to be a quiet and peaceful man, admitted, the police stated, he had "murdered" his family.

He was picked up in the early hours of the morning wandering about the streets with his throat cut. Opening his coat at the neck, Day revealed to a passing policeman that he was "murdered" himself.

SIX ARE ADDED TO THE COLLEGE OF CARDINALS

Pope Pius Elevates Archbishop of Armagh and Five Others

Vatican City, Dec. 16.—Six new cardinals were created by Pope Pius to-day in a secret consistory. In his address to the assembled College of Cardinals at the beginning of the ceremony of creation, he stressed the recent happy solution of the "Roman Question."

He emphasized that the Lateran pacts "recognized publicly the civil principality of the Roman Pontiff, and safeguarded our dignity and yours."

Three of the new cardinals are non-Italians and three Italians. After to-day's ceremony the so-called "foreign" cardinals were in a majority, their number being thirty-three against the Italian thirty. This is a disparity that has not existed since the end of the fourteenth century.

The first unit of the fleet of forty-passenger motor buses, which the B.C. Electric Railway will operate in the passenger transportation business on the streets of Victoria to serve districts not served by electric rail lines, are expected here from Vancouver in the next couple of days, it was learned to-day.

It is planned to use the buses immediately in the Haultain Street service. Experts of the company were to-day reported busy mapping out routes and timetables for the motor bus services. APPLY FOR LICENSE

At the Parliament Buildings it was explained that application had been made to the Public Works Department by the B.C. Electric for a license to operate passenger buses here. It was expected that as soon as the necessary licenses were granted the buses would be on the street here, so that the Haultain route service would be operating by the end of the month.

No announcement was made by the company to-day as to the exact route, but it was understood that the buses would make a loop around the central downtown part of the city, using the old B.C. Electric intersection terminus at Douglas and Pandora Streets as the starting point.

It is not known yet whether the B.C. Electric bus service to Haultain Street will parallel the service now being given in that district by the Blue Line organization, which recently entirely the Oak Bay field, competing with the street car service.

Since the second Yuletide Festival, which will open on December 23 and continue until December 31, will be staged under the personal supervision of J. Murray Gibbon, publicity director of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who reached here Sunday from Montreal.

Five special concerts will be featured during the Yuletide Festival, which will be under the patronage of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor.

All the features of the celebration will this year be held at the Empress Hotel, where a special stage has been built for the purpose in the Crystal Ballroom.

Since his arrival in the city yesterday Mr. Gibbon has been busily engaged in completing details in connection with the festival and he plans to have the big show well in hand by Saturday next when the new Empress Hotel will be formally opened to the public with a special afternoon function and night cabaret.

The Yuletide Festival programme was announced by Mr. Gibbon to-day as follows:

Monday, December 23.—Ballad opera, "Christmas With Herick." This ballad opera will depict a Devonshire Christmas Eve in the Seventeenth Century, with music by Henry Lawes and Harold Eustace Key, and libretto by J. Murray Gibbon. The B. C. Morris Dancers will also appear in English Morris, country and sword dances. (Continued on Page 3)

Vancouver, Dec. 16.—As rainy and warmer weather continues, the lakes supplying the B.C. Electric Railway Company's hydro-electric plants in the Vancouver-New Westminster district continue to rise, and the heavy snows of last week are proving of benefit.

From Friday up to this morning Lake Coquitlam had risen 2.03 feet; Alouette Lake 3 of a foot and Slave Lake 1.4 feet. Rainfall at Lake Coquitlam Sunday and Monday was 2.5 inches; at Alouette .5 of an inch and Slave Lake .32 of an inch.

With Fire Spreading From Boiler Room and Ship Loaded With Gasoline, Alcohol and Oil, Latest Reports Say Vessel Will Be Total Loss; Craft, of 1,838 Tons, Was Bound From San Francisco to Seattle.

Seattle, Dec. 16.—Laden with a cargo of gasoline, alcohol and oil, the steamer Skagway was aground and afire between two rocks known as Puka's Pillars, two miles south of Cape Flattery, to-day. Capt. E. Strandquist was still aboard, but the crew of more than twenty men were reported taken ashore safely.

The United States coastguard patrol boat No. 270, and the cutter Snomah were due to arrive at the scene of the wreck between 10:30 and noon to-day.

SURF IS HEAVY Reports from Fort Angeles revealed the vessel had gone ashore two miles south of the Tatoosh radio compass station on a series of rocks known as Puka's Pillars. She was said to be in a very dangerous position close to shore because of the rock and heavy surf.

TOTAL LOSS The Skagway will be a total loss, advises from the radio compass station at Tatoosh, a few miles north of the wreck, predicted. The fire was in the boiler room. Patrols of the coastguard on Tatoosh Island saw the distressed ship, apparently out of control. (Continued on Page 21)

Sudbury Mine Fire Leads To Deaths

Sudbury, Ont., Dec. 15.—Four men were killed and damage estimated at $200,000 was caused by a fire which broke out early yesterday in the crush room of the Lavack Mine of the International Nickel Company Ltd. The blaze was extinguished after seven hours of strenuous fire fighting.

USED BUCKET

The men were killed while ascending the mine shaft in a sinking bucket, having decided to make their escape from the mine in that manner rather than by way of the ventilation and escapement shaft which exists for that purpose.

As a result of the fire, approximately 250 men were thrown temporarily out of work.

The Lavack Mine is the third largest of the nickel properties under development in the Sudbury district. No further danger exists and at no time did the fire penetrate into the shaft, officials announced. An hour after the fire was out men and officials made their way safely through the underground workings. An inquest will be held, probably to-morrow.

CATTLE PERISH ISLAND FIRE

Trucks Owned By Provincial Government on Island Destroyed

Nanaimo, Dec. 15.—Five cows and two heavy dray horses perished in a fire of unknown origin that destroyed a barn and its contents, including farm implements and twenty-five tons of hay, on the Richard Eastholm farm, Gabriola Island, at 9 p.m. Saturday. No insurance was carried.

Two trucks belonging to the Provincial Government, used for roadwork on the island, were destroyed in the barn.

Broken halter ropes, found among the ruins, were mute evidence of the terrified horses' struggles.

The carcasses of the cows were found near the fastened door, which blocked the only avenue of escape.

Mr. Eastholm, road foreman, was in Nanaimo with his family when the fire occurred.

H. T. Ceperley Of Vancouver Dies In California

Vancouver, Dec. 15.—One of the men whose enterprise helped to build the prosperity of Vancouver, H. T. Ceperley, senior partner of the firm of Ceperley, Roundell & Co. Ltd., a resident of Vancouver since 1886, died Saturday at Coronado Beach, Cal., in his seventy-ninth year, according to a message received here.

The body will not be returned to Vancouver, but will be sent to Mount Clemens, Mich., where the late Mr. Ceperley was buried. A funeral service will be held there.

In business circles throughout the city to-day, tribute was paid to the integrity and enterprise of Mr. Ceperley. His death was not unexpected, since the recent serious turn taken by his illness called his son, Arthur T. Ceperley of this city, and his daughter, Mrs. E. Ceperley Hall, to his bedside in California.

They returned to the city Saturday, only to learn of their father's death. Mr. Ceperley will leave for California again immediately to make funeral arrangements.

MAN MURDERS FAMILY AND WOUNDS SELF

wounded about the throat, and blood was dripping from the wound and he could speak only with difficulty. He made the officer understand, however, that it was he, Day, who had inflicted the wound.

Brought to the station, Day, the police said, declared he had murdered his family. He repeated the confession, writing it on a piece of cardboard box provided by an officer. He had added his home address, 13 Laurier Street.

Day was then sent to a hospital, where his condition was said to be serious, although he was expected to recover.

Apparently the mother and children were killed with an axe. All had received one or more cuts about the throat as though the perpetrator of the crime had wanted to decapitate his victims.

LOST ON STOCKS

Hospital attendants said Day seemed to be depressed. It was reported unofficially he had lost all his money on the stock exchange and that he had been unable to sleep for six or seven days. He was employed by a local pulp and paper company, earning about $10 a day.

The Day family had been living in Three Rivers for about four years. It could not be learned where the family resided previous to coming here.

The names of the victims are Mrs. Andrew Day, Jimmy, Andrew, Billy, Freddie, Daniel, Emmett and Peter.

HEART ATTACK CAUSE OF DEATH

Vancouver, Dec. 15.—Heart disease, not starvation, caused the death of A. Thomas Russell, whose body was found in a cabin on East Pender Street here, police declared to-day.

Russell, who lived at the Salvation Army Hostel in Gore Avenue, suddenly collapsed while carrying a load of firewood into the cabin, which is tenanted by Robert Stewart. Stewart told Sergeant Thomas Lawrie, coroner's officer, he had known Russell for twenty years and that the man frequently had suffered heart attacks. Russell, who was obtaining city relief, had a key to Stewart's cabin.

migration Department. Hon. Robert Forke, according to this forecast, would go to the Senate, leaving a constituency in Manitoba for Hon. T. A. Cregar, who would come into the Government as Minister of Railways.

PATTULLO MENTIONED

Among the names mentioned in connection with the cabinet of T. D. Pattullo, Liberal Leader in British Columbia, now heard, while it is possible Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Pensions and National Health, would become a British Columbia colleague because of the size of the province and the work which is entailed by being its sole cabinet representative, the entrance of Mr. Pattullo is regarded as doubtful. No statement by Mr. Pattullo himself has been reported.

Several of the competitions had been well advertised by word of mouth, and many parties of shots had been organized for the day's sport.

SUNDAY TURKEY SHOOT HALTED ON LORD'S DAY

Police officers stated that provision of Section 8 of the Lord's Day Act prohibited such sports as were proposed, and the promoters cancelled the shoots.

R. G. Howell, secretary of the Victoria Branch of the Lord's Day Alliance, this morning stated that he had personally brought the proposed shoots to the attention of the Provincial Police on Saturday, and had pointed out the prohibitory clauses of the Lord's Day Act.

HOW BIRDS WON

The methods offered for disposal of the birds varied widely. In addition to the customary firing, as the birds project their heads from slat-topped boxes, sportsmen were to have been given opportunity to shoot birds loose in field, fire at clay pigeons or targets, shake dice or turn up playing cards, with birds awarded successful competitors.

Later in the afternoon a number of extempore turkey shoots were hurriedly organized in bush and timber country, the Sooke district being notable for the amount of gunfire.

Edward Ellis, operator of a gasoline shovel at the Bamberton quarries of the B.C. Cement Company Limited, suffered a fracture of the left leg this morning at 10 o'clock. He was conveyed by launch across Saanich Arm to Tod Inlet and there met by the C. and C. Ambulance and taken to the Royal Jubilee Hospital. Dr. Gordon Kenning is in attendance.

The regular meeting of the Tuberculosis Veterans' Society of the Canadian Legion B.E.S.L. will be held at their clubroom, 531 Bastion Street, to-morrow at 8 p.m. The executive meeting will take place prior to the general meeting at 7 p.m. All members are asked to turn up, as the delegates report of the Regina Convention will be given, and officers for the coming year will be elected.

"GIVE A JOB"

AT THIS SEASON OF THE YEAR there is often a surplus of casual labor. Climatic conditions and seasonal occupations are responsible for it. On this account the Employment Service of Canada finds it necessary to be more than ordinarily on the alert to find places for those who register on its books. But it cannot perform miracles, and its success or failure in finding work for the idle will depend to a large extent upon the co-operation the department obtains from the citizens. It has adopted "Give a Job" as its slogan. It asks all who desire any sort of odd job done to telephone the Employment Service office and make their requirements known.

Victoria may not have as many idle workers as other cities in the Dominion at this time, but there are a considerable number who would like to be much surer than they are that their festive season will not be a gloomy one. A few dollars earned between now and Christmas Eve may make all the difference between a happy and a miserable Christmas Day. These idle men are not asking for charity. They merely want an opportunity of earning a little honest money to tide them over the somewhat uncertain employment season. Co-operation of the public with the Dominion government's labor service here would help a great deal.

"GO NORTH, YOUNG MAN!"

WE DO NOT KNOW WHETHER HON. Charles A. Dunning, Minister of Finance, Railways and Canals in the Dominion Government, would claim to be the author of the advice to young men to "Go North!" but we think we are right in saying he was one of the first to draw special attention to the manner in which the frontiers of Canada were being rolled back in a northerly direction.

Since Mr. Dunning made his first reference to the many opportunities which already abound in the north, well-known figures in the public life of Great Britain and the United States have caught the idea which the Dominion's new Minister of Finance already had unfolded. Courtney Ryley Cooper, a well known United States writer and traveller, and for long a friend of Canada, has written a book and used Mr. Dunning's phrase, "Go North, Young Man!" for its title. What this author visualizes for the future of Canada's northward is summed up in the following significant passage:

"There will be no last frontier until the Arctic Circle has been reached and crossed by the workaday world, until businessmen talk as casually of going there as they now speak of going out to Denver across what was once the Great American Desert. . . . I believe there will be big industries some day within the Arctic Circle. Within the next twenty-five years, civilization will extend well into the Arctic Circle. To the person who doubts my statement, I must make the reply that he is not mentally fitted to give an opinion. The North is so big, so unsurveyed regarding its resources that no one should give a negative opinion as to what development might come up there in the next quarter of a century."

Although perhaps Mr. Winston Churchill on his recent visit to Canada was not able to acquire the first-hand information of the northern sections of the Dominion which Mr. Cooper possesses, it is evident he made a few inquiries for himself upon which he based the following comment: "In the past Canada's progress has been to the west, but in the next twenty-five years progress will tend more to roll northward, with the opening of new mineral fields and access to salt water in Hudson Bay."

It is a platitude to say that only a fraction of the great wealth of Canada has been scratched. But it bears repetition. Mr. Dunning, Mr. Churchill and Mr. Cooper, together with a number of other prominent men are convinced—and discoveries in the last year or so bear out their contentions—that developments in the next quarter of a century in the northern sections of the Dominion will be almost as impressive as the developments in the western section of the United States during the early days of the last half of the nineteenth century.

A PROSPEROUS INDUSTRY

SOME YEARS AGO IT WAS ARGUED by high tariff advocates that if the boot and shoe industry of Canada were not given more protection, bad times would be in store for workers engaged in that business. But the dire things that were predicted at that time apparently have not made their appearance. On the contrary, the production of footwear is advancing at a rapid pace in the Dominion, the year 1928 constituting the record year of the period 1919 to 1928 for quantity, while the value of the output is exceeded by only two years of the period, namely, 1919 and 1920, which are the post-war years when high prices embraced nearly all lines of commodities. Comparison of the quantity of production can be made only back to the year 1919, as records of the number of pairs of footwear manufactured are not available prior to that year.

According to a report on the leather boot and shoe industry in Canada for the year 1928, issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, the production of footwear amounted to 20,793,758 pairs, and the total value of the output was $50,018,802. In quantity, the 1928 output exceeded that of 1927 by about 200,000 pairs, and the value increased by nearly $3,000,000.

In the year under review, Canada had 199 boot and shoe factories in operation as compared with 191 in 1927 and 186 in 1926. Of these 117 were situated in the Province of Quebec; sixty-five in Ontario; seven in British Columbia; four each in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia; and two in Manitoba.

The industry, by the way, provides employment for a large number of workpeople, and the figures for 1928 of the number employed and the salaries and wages paid show increases over the preceding year.

Large quantities of footwear, of course, are imported annually by the Dominion, the chief centres of origin being the United Kingdom and the United States. The total value coming to Canada during the calendar year 1928 was $3,249,952, of which $1,918,046 was in respect of goods from the United States and $1,178,945 attributable to imports from the United Kingdom.

Leather footwear produced in the Dominion, as is well known, is almost entirely for home consumption, the export trade being as yet of relatively small proportions. In 1928 Canada's exports amounted to $375,458, compared with $275,093 in 1927 and $311,079 in 1926. The chief markets in 1928 were the United States and New Zealand. Taking the figures of production and the import and export figures, the total consumption of leather footwear in Canada was estimated at 22,146,717 pairs in 1928, and the per capita consumption is estimated at 2.29 pairs. When the whole industry is viewed from a sound economic standpoint, therefore, it appears to be in a sound condition.

DOING GOOD WORK

INFORMATION CONTAINED IN HIS REPORT to the provincial government shows that Agent-General Pauline's office in London is a hive of industry, doing excellent work for British Columbia in many ways. We learn, for example, that in ten months of the present year the activities of the staff at British Columbia House were responsible for sending to this province 255 persons, who brought with them a total capital of $4,325,763, one family alone transferring no less than $500,000 from the Old Country to this part of Canada.

This is a very encouraging report, reminding us that the province's agency in London is one of the most useful branches of the public service. "We learn something more about the work of British Columbia House, moreover, from that part of the report which deals with the purely clerical side of its business. This tells us that while in the first nine months of 1928 Agent-General Pauline and Secretary McAdam personally interviewed 949 callers, the number for the corresponding period of this year had increased to 1,830. Similar increases also are noted in correspondence, the figures for this year so far showing that 10,169 written communications were received, 17,964 letters having been dispatched.

As the people of Great Britain begin to think more about Canada, it is reasonable to predict that British Columbia will attract considerable attention, if only because the agency the province maintains in London is always available to those who are seeking information. The files of the institution, incidentally, contain numerous grateful acknowledgments of the advice and assistance obtained from the Agent-General and his staff.

AN UNWISE PROCEDURE

TWO MEN, ONE THE PROSECUTOR and the other the defendant in a case in the interior, recently were given permission by the police magistrate and chief of police to carry arms. In making their applications for this privilege, both men said they had been threatened and desired means of protection in case assaults followed threats.

The implication in the granting of these requests is that the police force of the city in question is not able to afford the protection to citizens to which they are entitled. If the action of the magistrate and chief may be so interpreted, it is obvious a condition exists which calls for special consideration by the law authorities of the province.

In the case in point it is obvious feeling in the community involved is running high. Under these circumstances the carrying of revolvers should have been prohibited instead of being permitted.

UNEMPLOYMENT IN BRITAIN

It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a government with a great majority to get away from the party spirit. But now there is room for accommodation and adaptation in matters which ought either to be removed from the party arena or to be protected from the full beating of the party storms of passion. One of these matters is unemployment. . . . The extent of unemployment since the war has been an entirely new phenomenon. It does not yield in any appreciable degree to the familiar fluctuations or cycles of trade. . . . There is only one permanent remedy, and that is rationalization. . . . If there is any common political ground in Great Britain to-day here it assuredly is. All parties could co-operate on this ground. Why should not the government frankly ask for help? That, somebody may say, would be for the government to eat their own words and acknowledge that Mr. Thomas had failed. If there is no more valid objection than that every man, in our judgment, should be ashamed to mention it. We are in the presence of a continuing national tragedy.

Loose Ends

Professor Nystrom spreads a false hope—because skirts are "too dead" growing longer—despite the laws of reason and mathematics—and that is not the worst—for terrible news comes from over the sea—and Mr. Roosevelt talks Spanish.

By H. R. W.

EVEN THE horrifying imminence of Christmas cannot detract from the fearful interest of America in the increasing length of the female skirt. Everywhere this alarming movement is being discussed and deplored, and learned opinions on it are being given by every person of importance from bank presidents to office boys. Latest and, as I think, most unreliable of these opinions comes from Professor Paul H. Nystrom, of the department of marketing at Columbia University, showing that the universities of the United States are devoting themselves to really worthwhile subjects now-a-days.

THE PROFESSOR sounds the first note of encouragement heard since the skirt started to grow longer early in the summer: for he finds that the women of America instead of falling meekly before the gods of fashion, who dwell in Paris, are rebelling against long skirts and starting a movement technically known as sales resistance. This has alarmed dealers, who hoped to profit by the new mode. He seems to think that the downward drop has reached its limit, and that the skirt will go up again, probably higher on the rebound.

NOW THIS is very encouraging, for as all husbands have discovered by this time, a skirt just below the knee takes six yards of material to make, while one just above requires only three yards—a violation of all the laws of mathematics which no one has ever been able to explain—and the cost, by the same disregard for arithmetic, is at least four times as great as before. Or rather it would be encouraging if you could believe it. Unfortunately you can't.

PROFESSOR NYSTROM may understand marketing and sales resistance and all the jargon of commerce, but clearly his ignorance of women is lamentable. That is the trouble with these university professors. They always overlook the things that matter. Women will not resist the long skirt. Even to-day in Vancouver, where they are more fashionable than we are here, you cannot see a knee from the Post-office to Grandville Street Bridge. We might as well face the facts now. Old married men must prepare themselves for an era of ever-increasing expense and young unmarried ones can make up their minds that there will be nothing to do in the street car but read the advertisements. Woman has embarked on a epoch of dull respectability, and instead of the "Farewell to Arms," which is the most popular reading of the day, we need a poet who will celebrate our current tragedy with a Farewell to Legs.

NEXT TO the increasing length of women's skirts the most alarming movement of the day is the present determined effort in England to oppress men under a new and brutal autocracy of clothes. Over there, I read, so many organizations have adopted ties of their own color that strangers find it difficult to secure anything at all to wear around their necks. American tourists who this year had purchased ties of crimson, striped with dark blue, found that they had stolen the sacred colors of the Household Guards, who were very annoyed at this affront, particularly as they were also waging war at this same time on the Upper Tooting Bicycle Club, which had the audacity to adopt a tie of almost identical color. (You can imagine the humiliation of a Household Guardsman being mistaken for a member of the Upper Tooting Bicycle Club.)

THE UNFORTUNATE foreigners tried the other stripes that they had purchased in New York, and found that they, too, were the colors of some organization, and no organization, even though it is a young man's choir, could allow its preserves to be poached upon in this fashion. In the end it was reported that Americans in England had taken to wearing black ties as if in mourning, or outlandish creations so violent in hue that no organization, not even the Household Guards or the Upper Tooting Bicycle Club, would wear them.

MORE SERIOUS still was the promiscuous sale of Etolian colors, which reached such a crisis that the secretary of the Old Etolians organization issued a public warning that "if not a member of the old Etolians Association, no one has a right to wear the black tie with the pale blue stripe," the wearing of which is the only apparent drawback to membership. How a man who is a member of the Household Guards, the Old Etolians' Association, the Upper Tooting Bicycle Club and perchance the Rotary Club as well, is supposed to combine all the colors of those organizations without disloyalty to any, I do not know, unless he is a Household Guard on Monday, an Old Etolian on Tuesday, an Upper Tooting Cyclist on Wednesday and a Rotarian Thursday, with the long week-end, perhaps.

devoted to football, cricket and even business.

WHEN THIS lad spreads, as it undoubtedly will, we dare not think what is going to happen to the rest of us who belong to no organization of our fellows, not even the Household Guards or the Upper Tooting Bicycle Club. There will be no escape when this movement gets firmly established, for though you pick out some color scheme which you consider too outrageous to belong to anyone else, you will probably find you have plagiarized the costume of the South Cowichan Pheasant Shooters' Club, or you will be suspected of trying to crawl into the exclusive Dry Fly Fishermen's Club of Campbell River. The only thing left for us is to organize an unorganized men's organization and devise a costume of our own, something unique, something bold and original, with large pink spots on it which no respectable organization will dare to imitate.

THE GEM of recent news dispatches, though it was not widely published in America, doubtless out of consideration for the feelings of those involved, has just come from Porto Rico. At Porto Rico Theodore Roosevelt, the son of his father, has been taking over the office of governor, and to do his job properly has studied Spanish with painstaking energy but little success so far. He has been talking to the people of Porto Rico in their own tongue, and what he has been saying, when translated, is quite delightful. Thus, to show what a family man he was he made the remarkable claim that he was "madre de quatro" which, being translated, means "mother of four." He added, or thought he added, that Brig-General La Jumea Pare, chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, was a bachelor, but what he said was that this gentleman was a "solitaria," which means a "tape worm." Such is the inherent politeness of these Latin peoples, however, that no one even smiled, and Mr. Roosevelt is still governor.

REALLY AN AEROPLANE
Moscow, Dec. 15.—A Russian aeronautical expert, Prof. Rindine, has a pet theory which claims that aeroplanes flying thirty or more miles high in the air need no fuel. He claims that an increased supply of hydrogen at the altitude could be exploded in a special engine and furnish power to propel the plane, thus running the plane on air.

MAN IS KILLED IN MINE FIGHT IN AUSTRALIA

Sydney, N.S.W., Dec. 15.—One miner was killed, nine were wounded seriously and forty-five less seriously wounded to-day in rioting and fighting with police guards at the Torbury mine. Six policemen were injured.

Later a special train carrying police and volunteers arrived at the scene, but there was no further demonstration, as the miners for the most part had withdrawn to Greta.

The Federal Cabinet decided immediately to intervene in the dispute, which arose when the New South Wales Government attempted to open the colliery with free labor, thus angering the locked out miners.

Premier Scullin telegraphed the miners and leaders requesting strongly that the miners be withdrawn from the vicinity of the mine to avoid further clashes. The leaders replied they would do everything possible to comply with the request.

Premier Scullin also requested Premier Bavin of New South Wales to suspend measures for opening the mine.

FRIENDLY HELP

MAKES ANNUAL YULETIDE PLEA

Snow on Island Adds to List of Unemployed; Hampers to Be Packed This Week

The advent of snow on Vancouver Island has put a stop to many outdoor undertakings, including logging and road work, and has added many to the list of unemployed, and the Friendly Help Society has met with many calls for assistance in consequence.

In view of the unusual demand, the society is appealing for an even more generous response than usual to its appeal for donations for the Christmas hampers which are to be sent out at the end of this week. Packing will be commenced at the rooms in the Market Building on Thursday, and the rooms will be open daily from 9.30 to 4.30 for the reception of supplies.

Cash, groceries of every description, jam, the ingredients for a Christmas pudding, vegetables—everything, in fact, that suits the winter larder—is wanted for the hampers. The sole exception in the Christmas requirements is the meat supply, which is always very generously furnished by Mr. Pat Burns.

In making up parcels, friends are asked not to forget the pleasure which the receipt of a few articles of new clothing, toys and useful Christmas gifts will give in some of these bare homes.

Institute Plans Christmas Tree For Hospital

The December meeting of the members of Victoria Women's Institute was held Friday afternoon with Mrs. F. Taylor, president, in the chair. Much correspondence came before the meeting for consideration. The resolution forwarded by the Kelowna Women's Institute re an amendment to the Mothers' Pension Act, was endorsed after considerable discussion.

The Christmas tree in the second south sun room at Jubilee Hospital will be decorated as usual, and a committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Laird will arrange the Christmas parcels for the patients in the T.B. ward at Jubilee Hospital next Tuesday. Several members will meet in the afternoon to help with this.

Several institute committees were left to the next meeting to appoint conveners to undertake the work. The ways and means committee for the next three months will be composed of the following members: Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Laird and Mrs. Brown.

The hostesses for the social meeting for the first Friday in January will be Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Laird, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Wilkinson.

During the afternoon a presentation was made to the retiring president, Mrs. J. Terry, when a silver cake basket was given her as a small amount of appreciation of the great amount of work done during her term of office. Presentations were also made to the retiring directors, Mrs. Laird, Mrs. Wilkinson and Mrs. Brown. On behalf of the institute Mrs. J. D. Gordon, provincial president, made these presentations. The members also had the pleasure of a visit from Mrs. V. E. MacLachlan, superintendent of women's institutes.

Owing to the weather being so unfavorable the attendance was unusually small, only thirteen members being at the meeting.

NEW CANADIAN TENOR HAILED

New York, Dec. 16.—Verdi's classic "Il Trovatore" packed the Metropolitan Opera House Saturday night with an audience which gave a vociferous welcome to a young tenor, Edward Hannon, English-born and resident of Canada, who made his debut in the title role.

A troubadour of true romantic aspect, he displayed a voice of powerful quality, carrying timbre, and in the middle register especially, roundness and firmness of texture. A slight lack of flexibility at the beginning of the evening may be attributed to nervousness.

G. C. Grant, Capt. Mogg, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Boyd, Count and Countess Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. Yarrow, Dr. W. E. Mitchell, Mr. E. J. McLaughlin, Mr. A. H. Lewis, Mr. R. J. Monk, Mr. P. Ross Hocking, Howard Harman, Henry Busby, Bill Turpin, Dick Edgell, E. Symons, Stanley and Harold Haynes and many others.

In honor of Miss Jessie Dunnett, whose marriage will take place shortly, Mrs. Chiappa was hostess at a miscellaneous shower at her home on Head Street Thursday evening. The bride-elect was the recipient of many useful gifts, which were wheeled in by little Pat Chiappa in a decorated buggy, and her chair was decorated in pink and white, surmounted with a large white bell. The reception room was decorated with holly and red and green streamers. During the evening George Roberts, Joyce Thomas and Francis Dunnett, pupils of Mrs. Gaskill, entertained the guests with numerous dances. The rest of the evening was spent with dancing and games. Toy Symphony By Little Pupils At Piano Recital

December Recital at Crystal Garden Wednesday Afternoon

Twenty-five small pupils of the Victoria Griffin, A.T.C.M., all under twelve years of age, gave a delightful piano-forte recital before a large audience in the W.Y.C.A. on Saturday evening. One of the particularly attractive features of the programme was the toy symphony by ten of the youngest pupils.

Phyllis Jordan, Blaise Clark, Ellen Cross, Harmon Crosby, Kathryn Smith, Peggy Stanley, Theresa Dods, Gladys Rawlings, Buddy Fisher and Iris Davidson, Gladys Rawlings, Theresa Dods, Kathryn Smith, Muriel and John Fisher, Ellen and Robert Qualls, Peggy Stanley, Dallas Allen, Betty and Joyce Dickson, Pearl McGary, Phyllis Lockley and Billy Veitch.

Other children taking part in the recital included Douglas Clarke, Douglas Davidson, Gladys Rawlings, Theresa Dods, Cathie Herriot, Muriel and John Fisher, Ellen and Robert Qualls, Peggy Stanley, Dallas Allen, Betty and Joyce Dickson, Pearl McGary, Phyllis Lockley and Billy Veitch.

Mrs. Percival and Miss Ruby Percival of Portland, who came over to attend the Percival-Le Page wedding that took place on Saturday evening, are remaining in Victoria for a few days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Morley Le Page, Weald Road, the Uplands.

For the holiday season a canape cut in the shape of a star, a bell or a pyramid Christmas tree would be attractive. Riced, hard-boiled egg white could be used in place of the yolk if a particular color scheme was wanted.

YOUR BABY and MINE

Mrs. Brown will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped, self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

DON'T LOSE YOUR HEAD IN MODERN TOYLAND

One must suppose that types of toys progress with everything else, but a visit to a modern toy department makes one wonder if there aren't any more children who could be satisfied with just a doll, a set of blocks or a few of the playthings with which the last generation amused itself.

At one table in a huge toy department I saw a wee soul, evidently left there by a shopping mother, who was so fascinated by an elegant electric train, red and green lights, engine and everything, that he shut his eyes and ducked beneath the table on which it was running smoothly, and came back up again, eyes open, assuring himself anew that it was really there.

In another department were animals so huge that one wondered into what sort of playroom such beasts could possibly fit. One wondered, with a wonder that grew with each new vision of toyland splendor, if such toys really amuse in proportion to their vast cost.

PRACTICAL TOYS

Sets of chemicals designed to make elements out of even the smallest boy, seem to me to be excellent play material, for not only are they extremely instructive, in a painless way, but they do amuse for at least one small boy of my acquaintance can play hours making these fascinating chemicals, and what's more, get the correct results.

But in spite of everything new-fangled in the way of toys, boys and girls do remain much the same, and the most satisfactory toys for long use are the old standby—blocks, building sets of all kinds, dolls and everything that goes to make up the doll household. And when you are buying for that old-fashioned reminder that there is no easier way for a mother to learn to sew than to be encouraged with a sewing set and some material and patterns for doll clothes. Adults may get a lot of satisfaction out of dressing dolls elaborately, but children get a far greater satisfaction in outfitting their own "babies," not to mention excellent sewing experience.

OLD STANDARDS BEST

There is no doubt but that the elaborate mechanical toys which run with little or no help from its small owner may be a novelty and delight for a few hours, but the toy which has been "tried" even a summer and is still in use, is the toy that will keep any child interested and entertained.

transpiring in the Far East, and much depends on the success or otherwise of the young marshal's efforts toward progress.

It is a rich agricultural area, not unlike the prairie regions of Canada. Settlers are pouring in at the rate of 1,000,000 a year, and some idea of the country's growth may be gained from the fact that the city of Harbin, where Russians have emigrated by the thousands, consisted of but one but fifteen years ago, and yet to-day is a city of 400,000.

Returning with Mr. Nelson, Mr. Nichols and Mr. Tarr from the Kyoto conference were Lawrence Kilian and Geo. Kidd of Vancouver, F. Hankin and Prof. George Wright of Toronto and Prof. H. P. Angus of Vancouver.

This was the statement of John Nelson, former managing editor of The Victoria Daily Times and publisher of The Vancouver World, present public relations supervisor of the Sun Life Assurance Company and secretary of the Canadian delegation at the Kyoto conference of the Institute of Pacific Relations, on arrival Saturday afternoon by the liner Empress of Russia from the Orient.

Mr. Nelson, with M. E. Nichols, publisher of The Winnipeg Evening Tribune, and E. J. Tarr, K.C., also of Winnipeg, traveled through China last month after the Kyoto conference, visiting the Manchurian war lord, the young marshal, Hsueh Liang Chang, at Mukden.

Contrasting pictures of Chang, to-day one of the world's leading figures, were presented by Mr. Nelson from his personal interview with the young warrior-statesman.

Chang, he said, is spending $10,000,000 on education, notably in connection with the Northwestern University at Mukden, where tuition is free and 2,000 Chinese students are enrolled.

On the other hand he maintains an army of 200,000 men, and is surrounded with political intrigue and menacing that while playing golf and tennis, his chief recreations, his safety is guarded constantly by a cordon of soldiers.

"Nevertheless," said Mr. Nelson, "Chang is determined to improve his people, and incidentally, to protect them. Manchuria, which he controls with a rule of iron, despite his youth, is a tremendous factor in the events

Champion Boston Bruins Continue Winning Pace In N.H.L.

THE SPORTS MIRROR

TWO FIGHTERS did a lot to shove into the first round on Friday night when Billy Townsend, hard-hitting lightweight from Nanaimo, won the Canadian lightweight championship from Al Foreman, of Montreal, and Jimmy McArthur of Vancouver, knocked out Ruby Goldstein after fifty-seven seconds of fighting in the second round. Just a little more to show easterners now that the West produces some first class fighters as well as other athletes.

Foreman, however, knew he was in for a stiff fight. Just before he was into the dressing room he was talking over his chances with a prominent Vancouver citizen. The ex-champion remarked if he didn't get Townsend within six rounds he would never win the fight. Apparently he knew what he was talking about. Foreman must be given lots of praise for displaying such good sportsmanship in risking his Canadian title against a fighter whom he knew would weigh seven or eight pounds more than himself. Foreman is a clever and pretty boxer and it would be a good thing if he were matched with somebody else, around his own weight before he boards the train again for Montreal.

Vancouver Island can certainly claim Townsend as her own, as he was born and raised in Nanaimo. At the fight Friday night there was a large delegation present from the Coal City to support Billy and immediately he climbed into the ring he walked over to the ropes and waved his hands at the home-town supporters.

It should not be long now before McArthur starts clamoring for a bout with Jackie Fields, welterweight champion. But if he has to wait as long as a year before he can get the challengers in other divisions, Jimmy may be a light-heavyweight by the time Fields comes to terms. The welterweight king has engaged in three four non-title bouts since he won the title, and seems to be in no hurry to risk his valuable crown. Before he fights McArthur, Fields will no doubt stop and think about the time he was knocked out by the hard-hitting Celt from Vancouver.

Announcement Saturday that the Crystal Garden will now be available for boxing bouts will mean a whole lot to the sport in Victoria. With the spacious seating capacity at the Garden, promoters will be able to draw large gates, provided the competition is good. The Garden is an ideal location for promoting fights.

Art Shires, baseball star with the Chicago White Sox, who has taken to the ring to show off his fistful abilities, has a few choice remarks to say regarding his coming fight with "Hack" Wilson, hard-hitting centre fielder of the Chicago Cubs. They follow:

Art (They don't get-up) Shires received announcement of the Wilson match with a yawn. Just another one of those amateur pug trying to cash in on my reputation," he said. "I never regarded outfielders as much anyway. If he lasts one round, which is highly improbable, he won't have to take off weight this summer. I'll knock it off."

Shires meets George Traflet, centre of the Chicago Bears, professional football team, to-night. He says it's just a workout.

Never in the history of the ring has a newcomer been in such demand as "Shy" Arthur. Promoter Mullen had forty-two challenges the last time he counted them, and the telephone companies were considering making the route to Mullen's office a regular beat. Challenges have come from baseball players, house detectives, and even from a penitentiary, where a convict became so incensed at Shires's boasting that he announced himself even willing to go straight to get a crack at the Shires chin—"if he'll keep it shut long enough."

Lefty O'Doul, Phillies outfielder, said if Shires fights like he plays first base, "he's a cheap for me." The house detective at the hotel where Shires had his final encounter with Lena Blackburn last summer, is another making the most of the situation. Shires's boasting that he announced himself even willing to go straight to get a crack at the Shires chin—"if he'll keep it shut long enough."

Wilson, round and fragile-ankled, is of more retiring disposition, but he is not without his fight victories. His activity in this line has been recognized by the National League, which, upon occasion, has fined and suspended him when he became hostile to the peace and dignity of the baseball field. Wilson expressed a willingness to take on the entire Cincinnati club last summer, and actually did come to blows with Red Donohue and Ray Kopp, pitchers. A Chicago milkman, whose conversation from the stands irked Wilson, was accused of feeling the force of the centre fielder's crushing-right.

Kara Bouroum Wins Feature Event At Closing of Anteuil

Paris, Dec. 15.—The metropolitan racing season closed at Anteuil yesterday with a victory for Kara Bouroum in the Daniel Guetier Stakes, a steep-chase handicap over a course of two miles and three furlongs. The four-year-old son of St. Just, out of Kwanon, won by three lengths in a field of seven and paid 3½ to 1 in the betting. Bouroum was second and Telen, third. Trotters now will have away at Vincennes race track until February when Anteuil re-opens.

Defeat Americans While Black Hawks Gain On Rangers

Third Period Rally Brings Bruins 3-4 Triumph; Chicago's Young Team Strengthens Hold on Second Place by 3-1 Victory Over Pittsburgh; Detroit Won Third Game Last Night From Toronto 5-3; Canadiens Now Leading International; Pete Lepine Gives Great Goal-scoring Exhibition.

Toronto, Dec. 16.—For the first time since the start of the season the international group of the N.H.L. has a new leader, but the American section still is plodding along in the wake of the champion Boston Bruins.

Canadiens of Montreal turned in victories in two of their three games last week to take first place. The Frenchmen downed Ottawa Saturday night by 6-4 on the strength of Pete Lepine's shooting. Lepine scored five goals and assisted in the other.

The New York Americans lost Saturday and Sunday games to Pittsburgh and Boston, 2-1 and 4-4. Toronto turned around Saturday night to down the New York Rangers 7-6 in an exciting overtime battle, but lost last night to Detroit 5-3.

A big third period last night gave Boston their 3-4 triumph over the Black Hawks. The young Chicago Black Hawks defeated Pittsburgh last night, 3-1.

Detroit held its own in fourth place with last night's victory over Toronto. Pittsburgh brought its tiny point total to four Saturday with its 3-1 triumph over the Americans, after losing to Boston, and then again before Chicago.

Detroit, Dec. 16.—Detroit Cougars showed a reversal of form here last night to rounce the Toronto Maple Leafs 5 to 3 in a rough and hard fought National Hockey League match before 9,000 customers. While the Cougars showed better checking and a greatly improved passing attack, the Leafs took a bitter blow in three goals, more or less of a freak nature, all of which drifted past Goalie Benny Grant, substituting for Lorne Chabot in the last nets. Two of the goals were long "floaters" while a third bounced off Blair's shoulder pads and trickled through the goalie's pads.

Toronto—Grant, Day, Horner, Primeau, Conacher and Cotton. Subs.—Duncan, Blair, Pettenger, Bailey, Cox and Smith.

Detroit—Beveridge, Noble, Hicks, Goodfellow, Cooper and Hay. Subs.—Connors, Lewis, Aurie, Brophy, Bellefeuille, Rockburn and Hughes.

It was the second defeat for the Americans in as many nights.

Boston started slowly, leading 1 to 0 at the end of the first period, and increased this margin to 3 to 1, in the second. Then the fireworks started. Boston scored four times in the third before the Americans could count again.

Third period—5, Boston, Oliver (Shore) 2:35; 6, Boston, Carson (Owen) 3:10.

Chicago, Dec. 16.—Chicago's Black Hawks battling through for three goals in the second period last night, celebrated their removal to the Chicago Stadium with a 3-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates in a National League hockey game.

A record crowd of nearly 14,500 paying customers saw the Hawks swoop the Pirates before them in the second session. Vic Ripley scored two goals in less than one minute on passes from Wentworth and Arbour, and Ingram counted the last one on a pass from Wentworth.

Pittsburgh's goal was scored early in the final period, White taking a pass from Mannen.

The contest was extremely rough, twenty penalties being called.

Third period—4, Pittsburgh, White (Mannen) 7:40.

Forum, Montreal, Dec. 16.—With five goals, all of them polished efforts, coming from the stick of Pete Lepine, Montreal Canadiens Saturday night outplayed Ottawa Senators, defeating them by 6-4, and taking first place in the Canadian section of the N.H.L.

Canadiens rammed in five goals in the second period after each team had scored once in the first.

Third period.—9, Ottawa, Touhey 18:42; Ottawa, H. Kilrea.
Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 16.—Battered and crippled, Pittsburgh's courageous Pirates fought brilliantly to down the New York Americans 5-1, in a National Hockey League contest here Saturday night.

Starting with Manager Fredrickson and John McKinnon on the injured list and seeing Roger Smith, veteran defence ace, eliminated with two broken ribs early in the second period, the Pirates scored four times in the third before the less-carried-a-tackle to the sturdy opposition.

THE LINE-UPS
Pittsburgh.—Miller, McCaffrey, Smith, Milks, Lowery, Darragh, McKinnon, Briden, Jarvis, Barton, White and Mannen.

Detroit, Dec. 16.—Joe Falero, New York bowler, picked up fifty-three pins in his world's championship match with Joe Scribner here yesterday afternoon by defeating the Detroit pin artist 2,386 to 2,153 in the second book of games.

AXIOMS AND ISLAND WIN

Defeat Shawnigan Basketball Teams in Island Knockout League

Axioms and James Island traveled to Shawnigan Saturday night to play two Vancouver Island knockout games and both teams returned winners. The Axioms defeated the Shawnigan women 12 to 8, while the Islanders took the men into camp by a 28-7 score.

The women's game was featured by hard checking with the Victoria team putting on a great last period rally to come out ahead. James Island had a little trouble getting started and it was not until the second half that they took a commanding lead.

Shawnigan women took an early advantage in the first game and at half time were leading 4-3. In the third quarter they ran their total up to seven while they held their opponents scoreless. In the final eight minutes of play the Axioms went to work in earnest and Jean Milliken scored three pretty baskets and Ruby Bethel added a field basket and a foul. During this period the best the Islanders could do was score one foul basket.

The team follows:
Axioms—K. Freestone, J. Anderson, J. Milliken, T. B. Penner, G. Styan, R. Bethel, A. and B. Amoyes.

Shawnigan—M. Hawking, 2. A. Gibson, 1. I. Lockovitch, R. Lost, 4, and K. Luckovitch, 1.

ISLANDERS WIN EASILY
Scribner twenty points in the final half of their game. James Island won rather easily from the Shawnigan men. The first half was close in score but the ultimate winners were missing a large number of close-in shots. With the half seeming dark, it was not until the last few minutes that the winners were finding the basket with any regularity.

"Stew" Smith with ten points was the leading scorer.
Ed Evans of Duncan refereed both games.

The teams follow:
James Island—Ross, A. Tompson, Aldous, Jenkinson, 6. Rivers, 4, Irwin, and Smith 10.

Shawnigan—C. Levington, 5, H. Hoff, E. Levington, 2, E. Gibson, F. Luckovitch, W. Elford and F. Cronk.

and coasted to an easy victory. Thirty-seven was his high run for the game. Natalie's high run was 30.

Rudolph thus far has outscored all opposition in the tournament.

CUE CHAMPIONSHIP

Detroit, Dec. 16.—Erwin Rudolph, of Chicago, continued his unbeatable play in the world's pocket billiards championship tournament, by defeating Pasquale Natale, of Detroit, 123 to 77, in thirty-one innings here last night.

It was Rudolph's fourth straight victory in the tournament. Natale has won two games and lost three.

Clubs Stage Merry Race For Top Place In First Division

Top Half of English League Presents Congested Condition; Manchester City Manage to Retain Lead, Followed by Three Other Clubs; Wind and Rain Storm Plays Havoc With Matches; Heavy Scoring Seen; No Upsets in Second Round Cup Ties; Home Clubs Have Edge in Scottish First Division.

London, Dec. 16.—Approaching the busy soccer season around Christmas, the top half of the English League First Division standing presents a very congested condition. No decisive lead has been established by any club, though Manchester City are on the top for the moment with Derby County, Sheffield Wednesday and Aston Villa treading on their heels.

TOD MORGAN TO DEFEND HIS CROWN

Junior Lightweight Champ Meets Benny Bass at New York on Friday

Second Appearance of Art Shires at Chicago To-night Holds Interest

New York, Dec. 16.—Tod Morgan, Seattle, holder of the junior lightweight championship, defends his title against Benny Bass in Madison Square Garden this week, but even this titanic affair will have a tough time competing for public interest with the second ring start of Art "The Great" Shires, pugacious first baseman of the Chicago White Sox.

Shires, who knocked Dangerous Dan Daley of Cleveland aside in two seconds in his first professional ring bout last week, takes on George Tring, big Chicago pro football player, in a five-rounder at the White City arena, Chicago, 10-night. Confidence comes from both camps, but Chicago fans are willing to wait for the fight itself to determine the relative merits of football and baseball as training grounds for the prize ring.

Morgan's defence of his title against Bass on Friday night heads a rather slim schedule of shows for the Metropolitan district. Morgan, a master boxer, with little or no punch, is tackling one of the most punishing punchers in the business in Bass. If the bout goes the full limit of fifteen rounds, there appears to be no reason to doubt that Morgan will retain his crown but some critics believe the slightly-built titleholder will wilt under Bass's deadly body punching.

Mel Tarleton, English lightweight, meets Al Ridgeway of Jersey City in the eight-round semi-final. Another eight-rounder will bring together Dom Volante of England and Harry Carlton of Jersey City, lightweights.

A FINE CARD
In the only other big show here, the New York Coliseum offers a ten-rounder between Kid Chocolate, Cuban featherweight, and Dominick Petrone of Harlem on Wednesday. Rene de Vos, Belgian middleweight, will take on Babe McGorray of Oklahoma; Jack Kid Berra, English lightweight, tackles Tony Caragliano, New York, and Leonard Young Zazzarino, Jersey City, lightweights, battles Jose Martinez of Spain in three other ten-rounders on the same card.

A ten-round meeting between Armand Emanuel Los Angeles, and Jack Gagnon of Boston heads an all-heavyweight show at the Boston Garden Friday night. Bruce Flowers, New Rochelle, negro, and Billy Wallace, Cleveland lightweight, furnish the chief entertainment at Detroit Friday.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL
A meeting of the Junior Football Association will be held at the Y.M.C.A. Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock. All delegates are requested to attend.

Canadian Hoop Champions To Play Here

Brilliant Royal City Team Will Take On Capitals

Exhibition Basketball Game Will Be Held on December 28; Adanacs Have Practically Same Club That Carried Them to Championship Last Season; Have Not Suffered Single Defeat So Far This Year; Capitals Will Trot Out Strongest Line-up.

New Westminster Adanacs, Canadian basketball champions, will visit Victoria on December 28 to meet the Capitals in an exhibition hoop game. The fixture will probably be played at the High School gymnasium. The Adanacs, with two exceptions, are the same team that defeated the Winnipeg Toilers and Windsor Collegiate last year to bring the Canadian title to the west for the first time. Max Shiles has replaced McKewen at centre while Evan Lewis is taking Mayer's place at forward.

The Adanacs seem to be well on their way to another British Columbia title and Canadian final, as to date they have not suffered defeat in the Vancouver League. Although the Capitals hold little hopes of handing the visitors their first defeat of the year they are bringing them here to give the local fans a chance to see the champs in action. When they appeared against the Caps in the British Columbia finals last year, all local enthusiasts who saw the game were greatly impressed with the style of ball shown, and it is hoped that a good crowd will welcome the team on their appearance here this month.

FRASER MAINSTAY
Doug Fraser will again lead his team mates on the floor. Doug is considered one of the most cool-headed and affable men in Mainland hoop circles, and is also generally considered the mainstay of the team. With Fraser, Dr. Dick Butler will complete the guard line. Butler is the veteran of the champs and has one of the best basketball heads in the Province. Butler is also one of the visitors scoring aces, coming through with points when most needed. In one of the league games this year, he collected twenty points, which is a mean task for any guard to accomplish. Howie Mayers will hold down the position of relieving these stars should the occasion arise, and although the least experienced of the trio is now showing good form.

Max Shiles, long considered the leading centre of the Province, will jump. Shiles has been given the call on many of "Buck" Yea's all-star teams, and in the opinion of most Mainland critics has earned his position.

IS STAR FORWARD
Evan Lewis, last year with the "Y"

FIELDING IS BACK WITH A FINE RECORD

Won Eight Out of Twelve Bouts During Sojourn in Vallejo, California

After a six months sojourn in California where he engaged in twelve bouts and gained a great amount of valuable experience and seasoning, Tommy Fielding, promising young Victoria lightweight, arrived back in Victoria yesterday. Tommy looks in first class condition and will have to do little training to prepare for his bout here on December 23 against either Wildcat Carter or Al Foreman.

Fielding in an interview to-day with The Sports Editor of The Times stated that he figured on being able to provide plenty of opposition for either Carter or Foreman. While in California Tommy worked out with Carter and according to the local boy the Seattle negro is clever and boasts a wicked left hand. Fielding has put on weight and states he is adding poundage all the time. He now enters the ring at 135 pounds. If he is matched with Carter the Wildcat will have to make 138 pounds. In his last fight Carter entered the ring weighing 144 pounds.

WILL RETURN SOUTH
Tommy intends to remain in Victoria for some time but hopes to return to Vallejo, California, where he has made his headquarters during the last six months.

Of his twelve fights Tommy won eight and lost four. Of the four he dropped, three were by decisions and the other one by a technical knockout. The latter came at the hands of Fernandez in Los Angeles. In describing this bout Tommy says he was forced to take off seven and three-quarter pounds in three days. During that time he never took a drop of liquid and when he entered the ring the reducing had sapped his strength. In the fourth round when Fernandez landed what might be termed the knockout punch Fielding went down but it was through weakness, his head being as clear as a bell at the time. He weighed in at 130 pounds for this bout.

Tommy engaged in his last fight on December 12 at Vallejo, California, against Mickey Gibbons, and won the decision. Some of the fighters Fielding met before were Frankie Glick, Rito Depunay, Frankie Sands, Billy Limer, Adrian Elton and Young Sam Langford.

In preparation for his bout at the Crystal Garden, Tommy will start training to-night and will work out at the home of Billy Davies, with Albie and Jumbo Davies as his sparring partners.

COLLEGE RUGBY SQUAD HUMBLING BY SENIOR BAYS

Intermediate Champions Go Down to 21-8 Defeat Before Experienced Fifteen

Y.M.C.A. Swamps Canadian Scottish 25-0, While Wanderers Tie University

Fielding a team that far outweighed the College intermediates, the J.B.A.A. seniors sent the Craigdarroch boys down to a 21-8 defeat in the exhibition rugby game played at the Willows on Saturday. The outcome of the match not only marked the first defeat College has taken this year, but also found their defensive line vulnerable for the first time.

College was weakened to a certain extent by the loss of "Chuck" Rutan, their former heavy wing three-quarter, who lined up with the Bays during the match. Although deficient in weight and less experienced than their opponents the boys in blue and gold put up a pretty game and merited the praise they were given by the spectators who watched the encounter.

COLLEGE ON ATTACK
Opening the match on the attack, College went down into the Bays' territory and held them on their line. Skilings fumbled a punt and Robinson circled round, scooped up the ball and slipped over for the Craigdarroch boys' first try. Boornman converted with a nice kick.

Three minutes later Hume started a pretty run to the College end. He was stopped at the twenty-five yard line, but passed to Art Fell, who smashed his way through for the Bays' initial score. Mawhood missed from a difficult angle.

The Bays stayed on the attack and after some minutes, Mawhood broke through on a play started by Dunn, to put his team in the lead. He converted his own try.

PRETTY RUN
On one of the prettiest runs of the day, Hume broke away at centre and ran through the College back to place the ball near the posts. Rutan converted to bring the count to 13-5.

Paddy Walton added three more points to College's total with a pretty drop kick before half time.

College pressed again at the beginning of the second half and hemmed the Bays in their own ground. Cockin kicked clear. Fell followed up and took the ball at midfield. With a tricky swerving run he evaded the College backfield and went over to add another to his team's total. Rutan again placed the ball between the uprights on the kick.

The boys in blue and gold pressed for the next ten minutes and looked dangerous to the carmen. Patterson went down the field on a pretty follow up play and brought Skilings down easily.

The College three continued to dominate play until Rutan kicked clear.

Dunn gained yardage on a pretty run from the line-out and College on the ten-yard line. From a scrum in this part of the field, Dunn received the ball and swung it to Fell, who went over for the final try.

Before Dunn tried a drop goal, but his kick went wide.

Jones refereed and the teams lined up as follows:

Victoria College—Patterson, Hayward, Egan, Young, Copeland, Ellis, Robinson, Walter, Sprinkling, Knight, Semler, Walton, Raynor, Grant and J. Rutan.

J.B.A.A.—W. Skilings, Fell, Cudlip, Dunn, C. Rutan, Hume, Cockin, Spence, Mawhood, Dan Parritt, Burn, Askey, Buller, Good and Warnock.

Y.M.C.A. WINS
Better combination play and more aggressive tactics gave the Y.M.C.A. a 25-0 victory over the Canadian Scottish in their final intermediate fixture of the first half at Victoria High School Saturday.

The game the association team had a decided edge over their opponents, who never really threatened the "Y" line.

Two minutes from the start the association boys forced play into the Scottish twenty-five-yard territory. Stott scooped up the ball from the loose and slipped over for their first try, which was not converted.

The "Y" backed back from the kick-off and held play in the Scottish ground. Mabee took the ball from the scrum and crashed over near centre for the second tally. The kick for extra points again failed.

For the next fifteen minutes the teams battled at midfield. The "Y" broke away, but nice tackling by Gann and Bapty prevented their three-quarters from going over.

Just before the rest interval Stott led a dribble into the Scottish territory and dropped on the ball between the posts. Parrott converted to make the count stand 11-0.

Shortly after the opening of the second half Robson broke away and carried the ball to the Scots' five-yard line.

OVER IN PACK
From a scrum in this part of the field the "Y" pack forced the ball over and well on it to bring the score to 14-0. The kick for extra points went wide.

The militia men forced play to the association's twenty-five-yard line from the kick-off. Winslow took the ball and ran through the Scottish backs to their twenty-five line before passing to Art Egan who trotted across the line for another three points.

Egan added another try to the "Y" total shortly after when he took the ball at midfield and ran through to plant it between the posts. The kick for extra points failed.

Parrott closed the scoring just before time when he plunged across and converted his own try.

Bill Oliver refereed and the teams lined up as follows:

Y.M.C.A.—MacIntyre, Winslow, Egan, Mabee, James, Robson, Stott, Sharpe, Sievers, Goswell, Parrott, Bleasdale, Walker and Roskelly.

BATTLE TO DRAW
In the other intermediate game of the day, University School and the Oak Bay Wanderers battled to a 5-5 draw in a bitterly contested fixture at Oak Bay Park.

University ran the ball down to the Wanderers' end from the kick-off, but failed to hold their advantage when Hume bucked back.

From midfield the Oak Bay team's three started a run that brought them within a few yards of their opponents' line.

Mortimer took the ball and with Hess and Holmes carried it back to the Wanderers' end. Usher stopped the rush and returned play to midfield with a nice punt.

Early in the second half, the Bay forwards staged a rush that carried the ball to the school's line. Harrison picked up and crashed over the first counter, which he converted.

TIVING COUNTER
A few minutes later Taylor, Legatt, Atkinson and Brinkley combined in a pretty three-quarter run which resulted in the latter getting across.

Hess converted with a nice kick to put the teams on even terms.

Although both squads played all out for the remainder of the game, neither was able to beat the defensive play of the other and both were forced to leave the field without further score.

Major Simpson refereed and the teams lined up as follows:

Wanderers—D. Harrison, Sturrock, Sherwood, Jones Backler, Brake, De Blaquiere, Haines, A. Laundry, C. Harrison, E. Laundry, Usher, Radford, Symonds and McConnan.

University School—Tulk, I. Brinkley, Taylor, Atkinson, Legatt, Hager MacDonald, Hess, Worthington, I. Fitzgerald, Holmes, Keate, Gillingham, Nichols and Mortimer.

MAN WHO SHOT POLICEMAN IS HUNTED IN U.S.

Minor Traffic Accident in Michigan Town Brings Surprising Disclosures

Benton Harbor, Mich., Dec. 16.—Frederick Dane, forty, until Saturday night regarded here as a wealthy Chicago merchant, to-day was being hunted throughout the Middle West as a murderer and bank robber with a $10,000 price on his head. The sudden change in his reputation here resulted from a minor traffic accident Saturday night. In the argument which followed Dane shot and killed Charles Skelley, thirty, St. Joseph motorcycle patrolman, and escaped in a stolen automobile. St. Joseph officers who invaded Dane's home found two machine guns and several hundred rounds of ammunition, two heavy caliber rifles, a sawed off shotgun, bags and cases of shells, tear bombs, and in a locked closet discovered $319,850 worth of securities which Sheriff Fred G. Bryson and Prosecutor Wilbur M. Cunningham say were stolen from the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Jefferson, Wis., November 7. The bonds were identified yesterday. Officers are convinced Dane shot Skelley rather than run the risk of being fingerprinted at the police station. Previous to the shooting, however, the police had no record involving him. He purchased a lake shore property in an exclusive section a few months ago and had the house remodeled and luxuriously furnished. HAD AN ALIAS He told a few people he owned a string of gasoline stations in Gary, Ind. It has been learned he also went under the name of Herbert Church of the Columbia Commercial Feed Company, Chicago, officers said. Dane was recognized by witnesses of the shooting and receipted garage bills also were found in his car, which he wrecked near the southern limits of the city prior to forcing Monroe Wolf, a House of David member whom he stopped on Winchester Avenue, to drive him south of Stevensville. TRAIL LOST In a pursuit that continued until his trail was lost early Sunday, Dane several times eluded the officers for minutes. The trail was lost at Coloma, twelve miles northeast of here. Discovery of the stolen bonds and arsenal led Berrien County authorities to request that gangland hunters in Chicago, Detroit, Toledo and Milwaukee be searched. In addition to the $10,000 reward offered by the insurance company for the Jefferson bank for capture of the robber, Berrien County, the city of St. Joseph and the St. Joseph Chamber of Commerce plan to offer $5,000 for Dane's capture. Dane's wife, Viola, thirty-five, returned to St. Joseph from Chicago Saturday night. She was taken into custody for questioning and is being held. She claims to know nothing of the guns or bonds.

An Estate on the "instalment plan"

No longer do young people wait until they can pay completely for their comforts, before entering into enjoyment of them. They have learned to plan their finances ahead . . . to buy "out of income". Wisely and conservatively used, instalment-buying is a benefit. But, in excess, it may easily encourage obligations which prove difficult to meet and which, in event of a sudden reduction or cessation of income, may mean calamity. There is, however, one form of instalment-buying which is always wise and safe . . . the purchase of Life Insurance.

Life Insurance becomes an asset which never depreciates. It can be made to take care of your needs. It will protect your home and loved ones after you are gone. It covers the obligations which your other instalment purchases may incur. And the "instalments" are cancelled at your death. In the planning of every family budget, Life Insurance deserves the place of honor. It is the only certain way of buying an estate "on the instalment plan". Any Life Insurance representative will gladly explain its advantages.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"God the Preserver of Man," was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches and societies on Sunday.

"The righteous cry, and the hearth, and delivereth them out of their trouble" (Psalms 34-17) was one of the Scriptural texts contained in the lesson-sermon.

Following the reading of the Bible text, passages were also read from "Science and Health With Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, one passage being the following from page 397: "The history of Christianity furnishes sublime proofs of the supporting influence and protecting power bestowed on man by his heavenly Father, omnipotent, all-wise, who gives man faith and understanding whereby to defend himself, not only from temptation, but from bodily suffering."

Pitts's orchestra supplied the music for dancing and refreshments were served by members of both the institutes.

The South Sanisich Farmers' and Women's Institutes wish to thank all those who so generously donated to the "Country Store" and helped to make it such a success.

The Ladies Aid of the South Sanisich United Church held their annual meeting in the church parlor on Thursday afternoon.

Miss L. Deering, presided and Miss A. Heyer gave the secretary's annual report. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Miss Deering; vice-president, Miss V. McNally; secretary, Miss A. Heyer.

The South Sanisich Junior Institute Club held their annual meeting at the home of Miss Janet Sherring on Thursday evening. The president, Miss Janet Sherring, occupied the chair. Miss Doris Mitchell, the secretary, gave the annual report. The financial statement showed a substantial balance.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Miss Janet Sherring; secretary, Miss Doris Mitchell; treasurer, Miss Doris Mitchell; and Miss Janet Sherring, during the evening a programme for the first six months of the year was drawn up. Following the meeting tea was served by the hostess and Christmas gifts were distributed from a gaily decorated Christmas tree. The next meeting will be held on January 9 at the home of Miss Janet Sherring when a cooking demonstration will be given.

Katy Well Bought On Merger Reports

New York, Dec. 16.—Advances in the secondary railroad list have found Missouri-Kansas-Texas in strong position. The stock was taken forward in aggressive style during recent sessions, reaching new high ground for the recovery. According to persistent reports in Wall street there has recently been a good deal of buying for merger purposes. Original unification programme involving the Missouri-Kansas-Texas was abandoned after efforts had been made to receive the sanction of the Interstate Commerce Commission to proceed along certain lines.

Following a consolidation ruling in 1927 by which authority to consolidate with itself the Missouri-Kansas-Texas and St. Louis Southern, a new plan was placed before the regulatory body in March of 1928 which eliminated the Kansas City Southern as dominant factor and substituted the M-K-T, the latter proposing not to consolidate, but to acquire stock control of the K. S. U. and Southwestern. Shortly after this, the Kansas City road announced the sale of its M-K-T stock. Later developments indicated a probable adverse view of the commission toward the new plan so that its withdrawal was announced early in October. Although no dividends have yet been paid on the common, the return of earnings power in recent years has placed the junior security in position to receive a share of the road's growing profits. Net income in the eight years to 1928, inclusive, averaged $5,122,000 annually, reaching a high record of 7,490,000 in 1928. Net income in 1928 was equivalent, after preferred shares, to $4.52 a share of common as compared with $4.08 in 1927. Thus far in 1929 earnings have about held their own with the previous year, with indications that the common will show at least $4 a share for the twelve months.

McKINLEY IN PORT AFTER ORIENT TRIP

American Mail Liner Docks Following Uneventful Pacific Crossing

Brought in Light Passenger List and Small Cargo For Victoria and Seattle

Capt. Robert Carey, well-known Pacific Coast and Orient master, brought the American Mail liner President McKinley alongside the Rithet pier this morning at 7 o'clock from ports in China, Japan and the Philippine Islands.

At 9:30 o'clock the ship left for Seattle. Capt. Carey reported a good eleven-day crossing from Yokohama, with little rough weather and only slight snow and fog to the south of the Aleutian Islands. It was a splendid voyage for this season of the year, Capt. Carey said.

There were 240 passengers aboard the McKinley in both classes this trip. Of these sixty-nine were in the cabin and 171 in the stateroom. Several passengers from both classes left the ship at this port, while the remainder proceeded to Seattle aboard the ship.

Cargo aboard the vessel was light. For Seattle there were 1975 tons of general, while 120 tons of general were left at Victoria. The Seattle cargo included oranges and 700 bales of raw silk. Thirty-eight bags of mail were taken off the ship at Victoria. Of these, eighteen were for the seaplane for quick delivery at Seattle, and twenty for the local post office. The ship took 1,245 bags on to Seattle.

Among the passengers aboard the McKinley this morning were T. V. Halsey, president of the Philippine Telephone and Telegraph Company, returning to the United States after a survey of the islands; Professor F. N. Talbot, returning to his home in Urbana, Ill., after attending the World's Engineering Congress at Tokyo last month; Miss Jane Scott, secretary of the Y.W.C.A. in Tokyo, en route to New York on business and pleasure; Mrs. J. Marvin Wright, a sister of the United States Minister to China, traveling with the McKinley and her family, who were also aboard the McKinley; Louis Yager, chief engineer for the Southern Pacific Railway, returning from the Engineering Congress with Mrs. Yager; Lieut. G. P. Prichard, returning to the United States after two years' service at Cavito Naval Station; B. A. Frouke of the Dollar Steamship Line, on an extended visit to Canada and the United States with his wife and family; Mrs. Pearl Borchert, returning to Seattle after a two-month tour of Japan, China and the Philippine Islands; A. J. Keefe of the Standard Oil Company, en route to New York on leave.

SAN FRANCISCO SHIPPING

San Francisco, Dec. 15.—Work of removing machinery from the wooden hull of the steamer Annette Rohlfs was completed yesterday at the Oakland yard. The machinery includes boilers, 1,500-horse power propulsion engines, auxiliaries and tanks. These have been sent to the disposal of the hull has not been announced.

The old lumber schooner Centrala, until recently operated by the Humboldt Redwood Lumber Company, has been sold to Southern Pacific interests to act as a tender to fish boats in Cedros Island waters. She was put under the flag of Panama and left yesterday for San Pedro where she will proceed to the fishing grounds.

The steamer Unimak, which left here Thursday for Crescent City after being forced back into port by the storm a few days before, ran into more bad weather and lost a 35,000-gallon oil tank which had been lashed to her deck. The last of the tank and the huge tank, property of the Shell Oil Company, went overboard. When last seen it was burning. Disposition of the tank which is believed to have been cast up on the beach.

CAPT. R. E. CAREY

SEATTLE YARD IS BUSY WITH MANY VESSELS

Todd Drydock Increases Yard Force This Week to Handle Ships

Repairs to Freighter Depere, Which Salvage King Saved, Are $100,000

Seattle, Dec. 15.—Increase in the yard force of the Todd Dry Dock, Inc., from 500 men to 700 men, will be made this week as a result of big ship repairs contracted during the past few days. The plant last week was awarded contracts for repairs to the Shepard Steamship Company's freighter Windrush and the steamship Point San Diego, totaling approximately $100,000. Yesterday the Todd Company won the contract for repairs to the Alaska Steamship Company's freighter Depere, a $100,000 job.

DAMAGED LAST DECEMBER
The Windrush was damaged when she went ashore November 26 on Hildy Island. The Point San Diego was damaged at Cape Mendocino, California, December 3, and extensive repairs will be necessary before she is seaworthy again.

The Depere struck a rock November 13 off Cape Mendocino, Southeastern Alaska, and was beached at Port Arthur. She has extensive bottom damage and her machinery is in need of overhauling.

TWO MONTHS
Repairs to the Depere will require two months. The work will be started to-morrow morning.

An extensive overhaul was given the American Mail liner President Jackson at the Todd plant last week. The big vessel was on drydock four days. The yard has much other work which will keep it going at top speed well into the new year.

Reuter's Special to The Victoria Times.
London, Dec. 15.—The Air Ministry has decided not to disband the High Speed Flying Section of the R. A. F., which was formed some three years ago for the testing of ultra high speed aircraft, and, incidentally, to provide a team to represent Great Britain in the Schneider Trophy contest.

After the 1927 Schneider contest the whole of the high speed personnel was disbanded with the exception of one officer and a care and maintenance party, and one of the Supermarine-Napier 65 monoplane was kept in commission to attempt speed records. The flight was not re-formed in its entirety until January of this year.

FURTHER ATTEMPTS TO BE MADE
After the contest this year all the personnel were sent on leave, but shortly Squadron Leader Oriber, the commanding officer, and Flight-Lieut. Stainforth will return to high-speed flying duties, and other officers of the R. A. F. will be selected for appointment to the section for training in high-speed work. It is probable that further attempts on the speed records will be made this autumn to place the record above the present mark of 357 1/2 m.p.h.

At the presentation of the Schneider Trophy after the contest, Premier Ramsay MacDonald stated that the Government would support a further official participation in the contest in 1931, and so it may be assumed that the appointment of Squadron-Lieut. Oriber and Flight-Lieut. Stainforth to the High-Speed Flying Section is the first step in the formation of a team for 1931.

Around the Docks

The Blue Funnel liner Tyndareus is due to arrive at the William Head quarantine station this evening at 6 o'clock from ports in China and Japan. She is expected to come alongside the Rithet pier about 7 o'clock if the weather is clear. Otherwise she will doubtless be delayed. For Victoria the ship has about fifty tons of general cargo and several Chinese stowage passengers.

The Japanese freighter Shunsei Maru is still at the Rithet pier taking on 1,300,000 feet of Vancouver Island timber for the Far East. King Brothers, local shipping agents, expect to clear the ship early to-morrow morning for Japan.

The American Mail liner President McKinley, which docked here this morning from the Orient, will spend Christmas in Seattle and will sail out-bound for the Far East on Saturday afternoon, December 28. The captain, officers and crew of the ship are particularly fortunate in having Christmas in Seattle as that is their home port.

The Furness motor liner Pacific Pioneer is now en route to Victoria and Vancouver from the United Kingdom. She is at present on her way from the Canal to Los Angeles. She is expected here next Saturday.

From Montreal, Quebec and Three Rivers, the Canadian National freighter Canadian Planter docked at the Rithet pier yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock and left at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon for Vancouver. For Victoria the ship had 350 tons of general cargo.

So strong was the wind all day Saturday that the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Russia was unable to dock here upon her arrival from the Orient. She anchored in the Royal Roads and the Salvage King of Victoria steamed out and removed local passengers and mails. The Russia left the Royal Roads for Vancouver at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The local cargo went on to Vancouver aboard the ship but was transhipped here yesterday.

The next Donaldson arrival here from the United States Kingdom will be the new freighter Gregalia, which is from the United Kingdom. She will be the Gregalia's second voyage to this port.

Philip H. Drayton Dies in Toronto

Toronto, Dec. 15.—Philip Henry Drayton, K.C., father of Sir Henry Drayton, chairman of the Liquor Control Board of Ontario, died at his home here early to-day in his eighty-fourth year.

SIX ARE ADDED TO THE COLLEGE OF CARDINALS

HONOR FOR ARMAGH
The six cardinals added to the Sacred College are: Archbishop Cereira, of Lisbon, who has the title of Patriarch, and the following outstanding archbishops: Laviand, of Palermo, Sicily; Minorah, of Genoa; Macrory, of Armagh; St. Patrick's original see in Ireland; Verdier, newly-named to the see of Paris, recently made vacant by the death of Cardinal Dubois and Monsiegn Facelli, Paris Nuncio to Berlin.

To-day's ceremony, at least for the few privileged witnesses of the papal progress, in the Consistorial Hall of the Vatican, was extremely simple in comparison with the pomp that will accompany the public consistory of Thursday, December 19, when the new red hats will be imposed formally on to-day's elected. The Pope appeared on foot, walking behind his escort of Swiss Guards, the noble guard flanking him on either side.

The components of the ecclesiastical, military and civil households of the vatican followed, with officials of the newly created Vatican City State.

DOORS CLOSED
"Let all go out," cried the papal master of ceremonies in Latin, meaning that, in except the Pontiff and his cardinals should leave the premises. The heavy doors of the hall were swung shut, and Swiss Guards stationed outside.

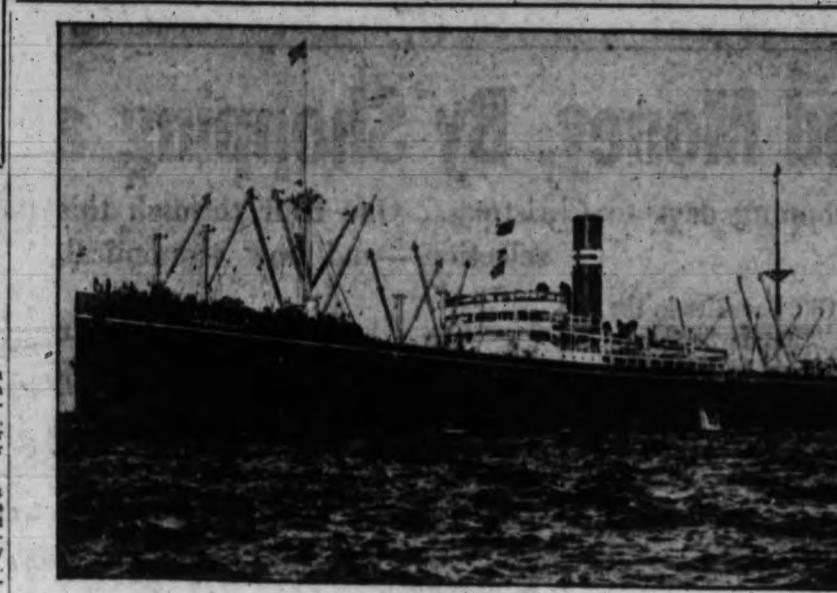

Within a brief moment of silence, the Pope pronounced the customary prayer to the Holy Ghost asking for guidance, and then began his allocution, which was delivered in Latin.

BORN IN ARMAGH
Monsiegn Joseph MacRory, Archbishop of St. Patrick's original see of Armagh, and as such primate of Ireland, was born in Armagh itself on March 10, 1871, and made Bishop of Down and Connor in 1918. He was promoted to his present see in 1928 upon the death of his predecessor, Cardinal O'Donnell. By his elevation to the purple Ireland regains her representation in the "senate of the Church."

MARTYRS BEATIFIED
Vatican City, Dec. 15.—British priests and Roman Catholic laymen to the number of 136, who between the years 1594 and 1679 died for their faith, now will have "beaten" written before their names. Their beatification was proclaimed yesterday in the course of a solemn mass in St. Peter's Cathedral. Cardinal Bourne and a large British pilgrimage, headed by the Duke of Norfolk and families related to the martyrs, attended.

The Pope went in the afternoon to St. Peter's to venerate the images and relics of the newly beatified.

DOCKED THIS AFTERNOON FROM ORIENTAL PORTS

SS. ARIZONA MARU which arrived at the William Head quarantine station to-day at 12:30 o'clock from ports in China and Japan. She was expected at the Rithet pier at 2 o'clock to discharge cargo and passengers before leaving for Seattle. The ship is a day ahead of schedule.

Explosion Cripples Italian Steamship

London, Dec. 15.—A dispatch to The London Daily Mail from Gibraltar early to-day said the Italian steamship Valsera had been crippled by an explosion off the Portuguese coast. It was listing badly, but trying to make Lisbon. The British steamship Otranto caught the SOS and was proceeding to the aid of the Veniero.

covery as perhaps the greatest human find ever made. The skull, as well as the skeleton, were said to be in a splendid state of preservation. Specialists continued their search in the hope of finding more skulls. Nine of the skeletons were headless. The discoveries were made in the same limestone quarry where the "Monkey Man" jaw teeth were found in 1928. The location of the skeletons was said to have convinced the discoverers the home of a distinct type of primitive man had been uncovered.

It was understood the scientists believed that with the various skeletons, as well as the complete skull, they had material enough to reconstruct the entire drama of the life of the prehistoric colony, or at least to sketch a portrait of man as he existed in the region of Peiping (Peking) more than a million years ago.

RHINOCEROS SKULL

In addition to the human skull and skeletons the fossil skull of a rhinoceros was found in the quarry. Also there were uncovered heaps of bones believed to be those of other animals. Many of the bones were clearly broken, as if by human hands, possibly, the scientists believe, by hungry men seeking marrow for food.

The scientists were unable to account for the fact that ten skeletons were found while but one skull was located. One theory advanced was that the

Capt. Bellew of Cariboo and Capt. R. N. Stuart Return Aboard Duchess of York

Big Atlantic Liner Has Large Passenger List and Much Christmas Mail

St. John, Dec. 15.—The Canadian Pacific liner Duchess of York arrived here yesterday morning from Europe, bringing two Victoria Cross winners, one Capt. R. D. Bellew of Cariboo, British Columbia, a passenger, and the other Capt. R. N. Stuart, commander of the ship. Both Capt. Bellew and Capt. Stuart attended the Prince of Wales's dinner in the House of Lords recently after she docked to welcome the returning heroes, who are the last Canadians to return from the banquet.

Capt. Stuart represented the mercantile marine at the gathering of V.C. holders at the Armistice Day ceremony held at the cenotaph at Whitehall. The general skipper also enjoys the distinction of being the only Canadian who won the coveted cross in the service of the Royal Navy as a "Q" ship officer.

The Duchess of York brought nearly 300 passengers to Canada this voyage. Most of them left St. John yesterday afternoon for Montreal, from where they proceeded west over Canadian Pacific and Canadian National lines. The liner also brought a large parcel of Christmas mail from the United Kingdom for distribution throughout Canada and the United States.

PRETTY TEA TABLES, TOO

Then there's another beautiful gift that Toyland has for girls who like to entertain their friends and all the dolls in the neighborhood—

A Junior Tea Table on wheels. It stands just eighteen inches high and with it come cups and saucers, glasses, knives and forks for six—every bit as pretty as anything mother has in her china closet.

There are little imitation cake sets beautifully decorated, including napkins and a lace cover for the table. Umm-mm; what delicious parties one can have with a charming hostess can be with such a table to help one serve daintily! (Photograph by Mayfair Playthings, New York.)

Now somebody's mother is going to wonder why Santa has gone to so much trouble to plan this table for girls? Why—just because good manners follow naturally in the wake of beautiful tables, whether they are little play-tables or grown-up ones. Learning to serve tea and to entertain graciously when one is small is a certain promise that when one graduates from playthings, more important social occasions will be met easily and happily.

Fielding a strengthened team

Five C's pulled somewhat of an upset when they handed the Jokers, occupants of second place in the First Division, a 3-0 defeat in the first round Province Cup match played at the Royal Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon. The churchmen were the better team, their combination and shooting being far superior to that of their opponents. In the only other senior match of the afternoon

Esquimalt won 3-0 over Victoria

City at Beacon Hill in a Saturday

League fixture.

Trotting out three additions to their team in Quinlan and Nicol, the C's presented a well-balanced eleven.

Ernie Harwood, the maroon and white stripper, was also back in playing top after a lay-off on account of illness.

The Jokers put up a fairly good fight, but their work in front of the goalmouth was poor, and as a result many free chances to score were passed up.

NEWS IN BRIEF

The annual ball of Mount Newton Lodge No. 22 AFAM will be held in the Agricultural Hall, Saanichton, on Friday, January 31.

To-morrow, the Victoria West Brotherhood will hold another of their regular entertainments.

J. H. Beatty, chairman; Harold M. Duggan, W. T. Smith, R. H. R. R. and E. L. Tait were named to-day as the Victoria Chamber of Commerce committee to deal with questions on radio broadcasting submitted by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

From December 16 to 24 the premium department of the Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada Limited will be open the following hours: Daily, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday, 9:30 to 12:30; for the redemption of prizes hands.

John G. Johnson, who was reported missing for some weeks, is residing with friends at Keating, city police officials have been informed. Inquiries as to his whereabouts were commenced at the instance of Mrs. Johnson, residing at Long Island, New York.

The regular weekly meeting of the City Council will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the City Council Chamber. A brief agenda will be held before Mayor Anson and aldermen, assembled for one of the final meetings of the current year.

Rumors that Richardson's cigar store on Yates Street had been held up on Saturday evening were rife around town yesterday. The story originated when a car parked outside backfired violently for some seconds. Nearby taxi-drivers spread the rumor as a joke.

All outstanding accounts against the Corporation of the City of Victoria for 1929 should be sent immediately. It was stated to-day by E. S. Mitchell, City Purchasing Agent. In future all material to be purchased by the city must be invoiced in duplicate and the invoices sent in at once, he added.

Donations received by F. Landsberg, local treasurer, Save the Children and Near East Relief funds for the period November 15 to December 15 are as follows: Miss A. Bittel $5 A Friend $1, Miss Marie $2, Miss Macklem $30; total donations $38. Further donations will be gratefully acknowledged by Mr. Landsberg at 737 Fort Street.

Popular Officer Is Laid at Rest

Full military honors were accorded the remains of the late Capt. James Richard Francis, P.C.L.I., at the funeral services held on Saturday. The cortege left the residence, 404 Constance Avenue, Esquimalt, at 12 o'clock, proceeding to St. Paul's Church, Esquimalt, where an impressive service was conducted by Rev. Bishop Schofield and Rev. P. C. Chapman at 12:10 o'clock. The hymns sung were "Unto the Hills Around" and "Onward Christian Soldiers." There was a very large attendance.

The casket was draped with the Union Jack and carried on the gun carriage followed by the permanent force of the Esquimalt harbor. When the cortege reached the wharf, the firing party fired three volleys and a bugler sounded the "Last Post."

The remains were forwarded on the afternoon boat to Vancouver for cremation. The honorary pallbearers were: Brig. J. Sutherland Brown, C.M. D.S.O., Major H. Niven, D.S.O., M.C., Major T. McPherson, C.M. D.S.O., M.C., Major J. D. Phillips and A. I. Kirkpatrick. The pallbearers were: Capt. R. H. Fort and Lieut.-Col. F. Gilman, D.S.O. The pallbearers were Sergeant Emms (Canadian Signal

NOT APPROVED

Vancouver, Dec. 16.—A Victoria dispatch to The Vancouver Daily Province says: "When the Penticton City Council telegraphed to Attorney-General Pooley to-day, protesting against the issuance of revolver licenses to Dr. Latimer and Charles Oliver, principals in the famous 'tar and feather' case, Mr. Pooley replied he had no power to interfere in this matter."

"The Criminal Code gives complete power to police magistrates to 'issue special licenses to carry firearms,'" Mr. Pooley explained. "I can not interfere with the Criminal Code, and have absolutely no power in this matter, the code giving the local magistrate entire discretion."

"Mr. Pooley expressed surprise that the Penticton authorities should bring the matter to his attention with a request for action when it was entirely within their sphere."

"It is surprising," he said, "that the local authorities appear to admit in their telegram that they can not protect the safety of their own citizens when they have full power to do so in this matter under the code."

"While the Attorney-General has no power to cancel a revolver license or interfere in any way with its issuance, it was indicated his department viewed the carrying of firearms by Latimer and Oliver with strong disapproval on general principles."

Story of North"So This Is Alaska" is the title of this week's stage presentation at the Coliseum Theatre by the Raymond
"Toby" Leitch stock players. It promises to be one of the finest shows ever seen at the theatre, and all who attend this week are assured of a most enjoyable evening's entertainment. The play is in four acts, and between each act the players appear in vaudeville turns, which in the last two weeks have proved most popular with Coliseum audiences. The week will open to-night at 8 o'clock, and there will be performances every evening at the same time and matinee presentations on Wednesday and Saturday afternoon.Judging by the title of the play, the story is a most interesting one, for any plot having to do with that great white land to the north is thrilling and gripping. Mr. Leitch, the leader of the company, says the play is one of the finest in his extensive repertoire and has been well received wherever it has been produced. The settings are in a small hamlet among the frozen wastes of Alaska, and the people in the story are typically northern, hospitable and suspect.The players are all splendidly cast and will give fine performances in their respective roles. "Toby" Leitch will again be a laugh provoker, with one of his now well-known and well-liked comic roles; Miss Ruth Albright, the comedienne of the group, will also have a comical role this week; Miss Leone Weber and Miss Esther Todd, the two pretty and popular little actresses, have popular roles in which they are sure to please their audiences; Phil Kieffer,
Leon Cluff, Horace Arnold and Rollin
Parker are also talented actors and can be depended upon to give creditable performances that are sure to please their audiences.THIRTEEN LOSE

Suspicion and mystery, a strange pursuit by detectives of an unseen slayer in a chase that led through ghostly seances, weird adventure in the shadows of a haunted manor and in a London fog, and uncanny happenings amid a group of London officers, are the elements that go to make up the newest mystery thriller of the screen.

"The Unholy Night," new Ben Hecht story, directed at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios by Lionel Barrymore, and playing at the Dominion Theatre to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday, as an all-talking production, is one of the strangest dramas in years.

Mystery piles on mystery: uncanny thrill one upon another, and finally, in the last few scenes, as the denouement of a fantastic seance in which ghosts are materialized from thin air, the whole mystery is explained in a few fleeting scenes and comes tumbling down like a house of cards.

It is Barrymore's first production since "Madame X," and establishes him as a past master in the art of mystifying an audience. The cast is one of the most elaborate ever assembled for a single play, fairly bristling with famous names.

Ernest Torrence sets a new record, and forsakes tough roles to play an immaculately garbed London physician, a mysterious psychiatrist about whom much of the bewildering moves, and Dorothy Sebastian is a sinister figure, the mysterious "Efra," half English, half Turkish, woman hypnotist in the story.

KEEP THE POT BOILING

See the kettle on the corner, pass it not in cold disdain. It was placed there by an angry God who sent it down. 'Tis the emblem of an order that has marshaled all its power To defend the wretched ramparts where the poor and homeless cower. Count starvation yields its bladders—Devolution swills its sword—Savage leaders they, whose minions form a heartless, ruthless horde, Weakened by the blasts of winter, wasted figures reel and drop, Till the faithful army rises and its captains thunder "Stop!"

See the kettle on the corner where the city's shadows fall— 'Tis a hungry little kettle, for us food it, one and all. Let us swell the Anglin's fiddle in its stomach, loosely tied; Every mouthful that we give it means a mouthful for a child. I have witnessed painted colicists adding to that kettle's store, Brining smiles to babies' faces. Tell me, can a Saint do more? Parsons, bankers, gamblers, brewers—men of high and low degree—Strive to keep that kettle boiling; let us help them, you and me.

See the kettle on the corner, near a church where music grand Thunders forth, appeals for heathens dwelling in some distant land. And the humble little kettle shrinks, abashed, and seems to say: "I'm just here to serve a baby—One that came on Christmas Day." Churches near the yellow banknotes; kettles clean the copper pence, And the Harvester is watching from his golden eminence. Little kettle in the corner, be thou not ashamed or woe, For a count is kept in Heaven, and the auditor is God.

—William F. Kirk, Chicago Examiner.

WOMAN SUED FOR WIFE'S ESTRANGEMENT

Mrs. Joan Sawyer Rentschler, left, former dancing partner of the late Maurice and of Rudolph Valentino, has been charged in a suit for $100,000 with alienating the affections of Mrs. Martha Wiegand, right, wife of Paul Wiegand, Hamilton, O., business man. The latter charges that Mrs. Rentschler's association with his wife has influenced her to sue for divorce. Mrs. Rentschler, who is remembered by Broadway as the beautiful Joan Sawyer, now is the wife of a wealthy Ohio manufacturer.

Every Chrysler owner can profit by this rule:For your motor's sake choose an oil that forms no hard carbon

Three to five times as much carbon and the kind that causes trouble—hard, flinty carbon. Yet it came from an expensive oil that is otherwise a good lubricant.

A little bit of soft, fluffy soot formed by burned Shell Motor Oil. Scarcely enough to hurt a motor even if it stayed in—but it blows easily away through the exhaust.

THE whole Chrysler line, from haughty "Imperial" to saucy Plymouth, is a real automotive achievement.

Forward-looking people buy Chryslers—and are repaid many times over in thrilling Chrysler performance.

But any car can be ruined by carelessness. You can't run without water in the battery, or without grease in the transmission. You must keep your car lubricated, serviced, if you expect it to go on working faithfully.

And be sure that you understand this point about motor oil: All oils form some carbon when they burn. Yet some of the costliest ones form three to five times as much carbon. And, strangely enough, many of these costly oils leave hard carbon—a kind that cakes like cement inside your motor.

Shell Motor Oil forms only a very little soft soot that blows away easily with the exhaust gases.

Avoid oils that form gritty, coke-like carbon deposits. They'll cause you valve trouble. Bits of carbon will chip off and grind endlessly through moving motor parts. Glowing, red-hot "nibs" will make your motor knock.

Why ask your car to perform against such odds? Give it a chance to keep free from hard carbon. Shell motor Oil is sold by thousands of stations and garages. Insist that it go into your Chrysler.

Six Rooms All on Single Floor With Every Convenience

Many Unique and Interesting Innovations in New Home on Pakington Street Which Will Be Open for Public Inspection for Two Weeks; Effects in Living-room, Dining-room, Dinette and Kitchen Bound to Find Favor With Housewife.

Victoria's beautiful new Model Home situated at 1034 Pakington Street, between Cook and Vancouver Streets, will be thrown open for public inspection to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock and will remain open each day from that hour until 10 o'clock at night for at least two weeks.

This Model Home will undoubtedly be visited by thousands of Victorians while it is open. It is something unique in bungalow construction and gives the home-lover six admirably planned, decorated and equipped rooms all on one floor, with an abundance of cupboard space.

The six-room bungalow is in tremendous demand nowadays as housewives object to climbing stairs when the rooms are on two floors. Five-room bungalows and semi-bungalows with several rooms on a second floor, were popular for some time but now the demand is for everything on the ground floor, provided not more than six rooms are desired.

Having this in mind the Victoria Realty and Building Limited got its draftsmen together and designed a house which it thinks will meet the requirements of to-day. The Model Home is the name given this new creation which was completed on Saturday and is now ready for inspection. Careful attention was given the exterior requirements of the house as well as to the interior and the effect is particularly pleasing to the eye.

HOUSE SAVES STEPS

The interior, however, is what will meet with the unanimous praise of the housewife, who will find everything convenient for her many needs and a house that will save many steps during the day.

The Victoria Realty and Building Limited has built thirty homes in Victoria this year but takes greatest pride in the Model Home, which will be introduced to the public to-morrow. Officials of the company expect that it will prove an extremely popular design, and are anxiously looking forward to comments from the public.

It is said that most of a woman's time is spent in the kitchen, so in the Model Home every attention has been given to this important room. It is finished in cream and pale green and the arrangements of the cupboards with their frosted glass doors, as well as the full length cooler refrigerator, sink, with its enameled drainboards, tiled cupboard top and enameled-topped table are usually well arranged.

Large windows on the west side, over the sink, provide plenty of light. Adjoining the kitchen is the laundry with its gas plate for boiling clothes, the ironing board and collapsible table are enclosed in the kitchen wall just outside the laundry. Formerly the custom was to place the laundry tub in the basement but the Model Home saves steps.

As one approaches the Model Home he is impressed with the large eaved eaves, the California stucco and the arrangements of the windows on the front elevation, together with the timbered gables, which adds the Tudor touch.

TUDOR PORCH

An arched Tudor Porch protects the front door, which is a full mahogany panel of considerable width, rounded at the top with an iron-grilled look-out, with a hinged glass window inset. Heavy antique black iron hinges and thumb latch, with door knocker, lend an air of superiority to the entrance.

The entrance hall is of good size and the quartered, parquetry oak floor, which is also laid in the living room and dining room, lends a touch of beauty to this front part of the Model Home. The ceilings are low and the rounded plaster corners, which do away with the need for wood trim around the doors and windows, are something unusual here and conform with the English Cottage style of architecture. The window frames in the living room and dining room from which a fine view of Beacon Hill Park, the Olympic Mountains and Fairfield district is obtained, are composed of series of three windows with a large plate-glass centre pane, supported on either side by narrower twin sections. This enables nice effects to be obtained in the arrangement of curtains. The low baseboards, French doors, plastering, heating effects, mahogany finish, are all items which will prove of interest to those who visit the home.

BEAUTIFUL FIREPLACE
The Sculpture fireplace in the living room is something new in Victoria. It has a moulded carved stone opening over which is the Sculpture mantel shell in model stone effect, the whole placed in a Caen stone buttress, executed in plaster. The finishing of the fireplace has received artistic touches.

giving an appearance of warmth in keeping with the remainder of the room.
Three commodious bedrooms, with large closets, are beautifully decorated, which also applies to the hall-ways. Between the bedrooms is a spacious linen closet with drawers below. The bathroom which is also conveniently placed to serve all three bedrooms, has a built-in porcelain tub of newest design with shower connections, provided with moths and midwife-proof curtains, and a pedestal wash basin. There is also an adjustable Venetian window medicine cabinet recessed in the wall.

LIGHTING EFFECT
Lighting which is such an important consideration in home construction nowadays was given attention in the Model Home by a specialist in lighting. He visited many cities to find out the latest in lighting effects. The garish display of former years has been substituted by simple beauty of light diffusion, to give a soft glow of equal strength all round the room. Outlets for reading lamps and other electrical appliances have been provided and the house is wired for radio receiving sets in convenient locations.

Another point of interest in the Model Home is the dainty dinette, which is an inseparable feature of the modern home. It is between the kitchen and dining room and is prettily decorated.
The upstairs of the house has not been finished but a stairway has been provided and if required two or three additional rooms could be built.
In the basement is a hot-air pipe furnace and along the walls ample provision has been made for fruit cupboards.
A garage designed to fit in with the general appearance of the house has been built and a wide driveway leads up to it.
Still another unique and attractive feature is the cast stone Sculpture telephone niche in the hall, placed within easy reach of all rooms.

MACMURRAY ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT

U.S. Minister to China Resigns to Become Professor in Johns Hopkins University
Arrived Here With Family Today and Is Proceeding Direct to Baltimore

After twenty-two years in the United States diplomatic service, John Van Antwerp MacMurray, American Minister to China since April 9, 1925, has resigned his office to become a university professor.
On his arrival here today as a passenger on board the liner President McKinley, Mr. MacMurray announced that he planned to join the Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore, where he will specialize in the department of international relations.

NO DIVISION OF OPINION
There had been no division of opinion between him and the department in Washington, Mr. MacMurray said. He was tremendously interested in university work and remarked that he had spent most of his life in the diplomatic service and was looking for a change.
While the President McKinley was in port this morning Mr. MacMurray, accompanied by Mrs. MacMurray and their three children, the Misses Lois and Jean, and Master Frank, took an automobile drive through the city. They proceeded to Seattle by the liner.

ANYBODY'S GUESS
"It's anybody's guess," tersely remarked Mr. MacMurray when asked his opinion as an expert concerning internal conditions in China.

"No one can forecast what is going to happen in China," he said.
He was ready to admit, however, that the government of General Chiang Kai Shek was about as good as it was possible to get in China. Although it was hampered in the development of its policies by conflicting factions.

The American Minister to China said that no definite step had been taken to transfer the foreign embassies and legations from the historic city of Peking to Nanking, although rumors had been legion.
He did not believe there was any truth in the report emanating from Nanking that the Nationalist Government was considering a proposal to transfer the capital back to Peking because, through its historical associations, it had become a tourist magnet to foreigners that made it impossible to ignore.

Nanking might be termed a suburb of Shanghai, but, for import and export trade purposes, it was best suited for the purposes of government headquarters, said Mr. MacMurray.

SUCCESSOR AT PEKING
Mr. MacMurray said that his successor at the American Legation at Peking would be Mr. Nelson Johnson, one of the secretaries of state at Washington.

MODEL PLANE CLUB GIVEN FINE TROPHY

Large Cup Presented By Aero Club to Young Enthusiasts For Competition
A large silver perpetual challenge cup and a miniature trophy was donated by the Victoria Aero Club to the Victoria Model Aircraft Club for competition in sustained flights during the latter body's meeting in the Y.M.C.A. on Saturday night.

The presentation was made following an address by Ernest Eve, by Sydney Pickles, secretary of the Aero Club. Approximately seventy young enthusiasts gathered at the association's recreation room during the evening to hear Mr. Eve speaking on the elementary principles of flight. The speaker explained the various parts of the aeroplane which kept it in the air. He dealt with the lift in the wing, the fuselage structure and other important features of the machines.

At the conclusion of the talk, W. Young, a member of one of the older flights in the model club, gave a demonstration of flying the Baby R.O.G. type described in The Victoria Times Saturday.

During the afternoon members of the Y.M.C.A. flight gave a demonstration of model flying in the association's gymnasium. Although only five planes were flown, a crowd of twenty boys watched the friendly competition. When sufficient planes have been built by the different flights in the club, its members will stage an outdoor meet for the new challenge trophy which was presented to them Saturday evening. This is expected to take place early in the spring.

All Marriages Would Be Happy If Every Woman Chose the Swain Best Suited to Her—But What Woman Can Gauge a Man's Qualities Before Marriage, or Be Sure He'll Stay That Way Afterward?

WHY, asks a woman, "should there be so many unsatisfactory marriages when there are so many different types of men to pick from? Why, indeed, except that women are poor judges of men and that matrimony causes the leopard to change its spots and a husband is no more like the man he was before marriage than a cooking stove is like a sore-breasted hen. She what is the poor woman to do? She can't possibly know what kind of husband she is getting until after she has got him and then the information comes too late to do her any good. To tell her that the way to make a success of marriage is to pick out the type of man that exactly suits her requirements is about as helpful as it is to tell her that the way to make a killing at the races is to pick out the winning horse or that she can make millions on the stock market by investing in the right stocks.

Moreover, the girl herself doesn't know what type of husband would really suit her and make her happy. She thinks it will be too blissful for words to be married to a man who is an ardent and romantic lover, but when she gets a gallant who finds she has got trouble. For the man who has a gift for love-making practices it on every good-looking female who comes his way.

She thinks she would like to have a husband as a husband and a good dancer and that of skipping out of an evening, but after marriage she finds out that what a wife needs most is a freddie companion. Or she picks out a man of the great, solid, sensible type and she finds that he considers it foolish to indulge in any pleasure whatever and stays at home and does the housework and runs the business. Or she picks out a go-getter, who is thrifty and saving, and she finds out that he has a Yale lock on his pocketbook. Or she chooses a man because he is ambitious and she discovers that he is so absorbed in his career he hasn't a thought to give his wife or his home.

So there you are, and no woman can be any more sure that she is getting the sort of husband she desires by picking him out by his type than she could be if she ran her hand in a grab-bag and pulled out the first man she got her hand on.

But the tragic part about it is that it is true that if men and women could marry the particular types of men and women that suited them it would do away with matrimonial infidelity. For the trouble with most discordant couples is not that they are vicious and villainous, but that they are brutes and shrews, not that they maliciously seek to make each other wretched, but simply that they are incompatible.

It is just that the wrong men and women have got together. They would make some other man and woman perfectly good and satisfactory wives and husbands, but they ruin each other's far the wrong way, they get on each other's nerves and bring out everything that is worst in each other's natures.

Divorce is never anything but the result of a man and woman having picked out the wrong type of mate. The cruelty, the unfaithfulness, the nagging, the boredom, the antagonism and death of all affection between a husband and wife that lead up to the writing of a home never would have occurred if they had chosen original life partners to begin with.

Perhaps it is nature holding the balance steady to prevent humanity from running to extremes, in type or else it is a perverse and malicious fate that makes out of our offerings that causes men and women to pick out as wives and husbands the very ones who are most antagonistic to them and with whom they will find it most difficult to live in peace and harmony.

Every day we see highly educated and intelligent men marrying little, pretty-faced, doll-like girls who have two ideas to rub together in their heads. We see poor young men who are ambitious to get ahead in the world marrying girls who are clothes mad and money mad. We see tightwad men marrying girls who are spendthrifts. We see domestic-minded men who like to eat and who compound a salad dressing as if they were going through a religious rite marrying girls who leave the sight of a kitchen and who can't hold water without screaming it. We see men whose sole idea in marrying is to settle down, marrying girls who regard matrimony as a perpetual date to step out with a steady who will have to go whether he wants to or not.

Of course, these mismatched couples are utterly miserable blighted together. Of course, they fight like the lightning bugs. Of course, they pull different ways and in the end pull down their house of happiness about their ears. Sometimes they make it a very good war from the altar to the grave. Sometimes one or the other dies and gives the other chance at happiness. Often they get divorced and marry again and live happily ever afterward, for the second time they get their type.

The intelligent man is happy with the intelligent woman who likes to read the books he does. The musician is happy with the wife who looks like a Gaby from Paris and who is always ready to do the night club with him. The thrifty man is happy with a domestic wife who gets more of a kick out of a deposit in the savings bank than out of a new car. The bon vivant enjoys satisfaction across the table at a wife who can cook like a French chef.

And the pathetic thing is that there are all these types of husbands and wives that would be perfect for us, but we can't find them. And if they would only run true to form after we have found them.

Sister Mary's Kitchen

WHEN a stew is properly made, it is one of the most satisfying and nourishing foods that can be served to a hungry family. But when served to a family of gourmets, it is a different matter. It is then that the cook must be a true artist, for she must make the most of the ingredients and create a masterpiece of flavor and texture.

Ingredients: One and one-half pounds lean beef, two medium sized potatoes, one cup small whole mushrooms, one-half cup sweet green peppers cut in strips, one teaspoon salt, one small onion, one-quarter teaspoon pepper, one-quarter teaspoon celery salt, flour, drippings, two cups boiling water.

Preparation: Pare potatoes and cut in quarters. Cut beef into small pieces and salt them in flour. Melt drippings in a large frying pan and brown the beef on all sides. Add prepared meat, potatoes, pepper, mushrooms and onion. Cover and simmer over the fire, shaking the kettle to brown all sides. Add

To-morrow's Horoscope

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1929

On this day the stars appear to favor the earth, according to astrology. One benefic planet is strong.

Under this planetary arrangement there should be keen discernment in business or professional possibilities. The morning should be an auspicious time for making plans.

It is a lucky star for all and all interests, making for wise conservation and administration of business affairs. Ocean voyages starting under this direction of the stars may be lucky, especially if the traveler is not making a diplomatic tour.

Industry comes under rather an adverse influence to-day which may incline workers to be restive and discontented.

Astrologers declare that the new year is to bring prodigious prosperity to the United States and for that reason, economic discontent is foolish.

Farmers to-day may find reason to feel anxious regarding future legislation, but they will profit in present action. This is read as an unlucky day for signing contracts of any sort. Leases especially may be unsatisfactory.

Newspapers may carry this week reports of an accident of a calamity or dire effect. Warning is given to beware of perils from fire.

The evening should be fairly favorable for conferences or for meetings at which important questions are discussed.

Closer relations between the United States and the British colonies are prophesied. Canada is to be even more friendly as a neighbor than formerly. It is foretold. Projects of international interests are praised. Children born on this day probably will be of retiring and introspective nature. The subjects of this sign are often endowed with creative genius.

Ludwig van Beethoven, famous composer, was born on this day, 1770. Others who have celebrated it as a birthday include Thomas stead of the Federal Government. A former agreement with Alberta failed to pass largely because of the conditions governing the return of the school lands, but both the Federal and provincial ministers expressed the opinion there would not be cause for objection in the present agreement. Dealing with the school lands fund, the Alberta agreement says: "Upon the coming into force of this agreement, Canada will transfer to the province the money or securities constituting that portion of the school lands fund created under sections 22 and 23 of the act to amend and consolidate the several acts respecting public lands of the Dominion, being chapter 31 of 42 Victoria and subsequent statutes, which is derived from the disposition of any school lands within the province or within that part of the northwest territories now included within the boundaries thereof. "The school lands fund to be transferred to the province as aforesaid, and such of the school lands specified in section 37 of the Dominion Lands Act, being chapter 113 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1927, as pass to the administration of the province under the terms hereof, shall be set aside and shall continue to be administered by the province in accordance, mutatis mutandis, with the provision in section 37 to 40 of the Dominion Lands Act for the support of schools organized and carried on therein in accordance with the law of the province."

Starr King, reformer, 1824; Alexander Assa, son of a naturalist and like him a scientist, 1893; Sir Humphrey Davy, natural philosopher, 1778.

DEATH INVESTIGATED

Seattle, Dec. 16.—The body of Miss Lucile Duxbury, who disappeared from her Des Moines, Wash., home nearly two weeks ago, was found under a log on the Charles Peterson ranch near Kent, yesterday. While it was believed the girl, who acquaintances said was suffering from a nervous disorder, had died from exposure, a bruise on the head pointed to possible foul play. An autopsy is being made by Deputy Coroner G. O. Chittenden of Kent.

What a joy to find a Waterman's

A small package, but what a big thrill it brings to young and old... a new Waterman's! And who wouldn't be glad... who wouldn't have a Merry Christmas with a gift so useful and convenient... a lifetime reminder of your thoughtfulness!

GIVE A NUMBER 7 WATERMAN'S

What is Waterman's Number 7? If we all wrote the same hand, there would be no difficulty in choosing a pen to fit. But we don't. All handwriting differs superficially; although, fundamentally, there are but 7 different styles, varying only according to the manner in which the pen is held in the hand.

Thus Waterman's Number 7 means the standardizing of 7 different pen points to suit 7 different fundamental styles of handwriting and distinguishing each style by a different colour band to facilitate choice. In a word, Waterman's dealers are equipped with a Number 7 tray, consisting of 7 pens, with 7 different points at seven dollars. The Lucky One receiving your Christmas offering may visit the nearest Waterman dealer and exchange the nib for one best suited to their style of handwriting.

PARLIAMENT TO VOTE SOON ON PRAIRIE PACTS

Federal and Manitoba and Alberta Natural Resources Agreements Signed

Ottawa, Dec. 16.—The Federal Government, having signed agreements with the Governments of Manitoba and Alberta to transfer of the natural resources of those provinces from Federal to provincial control, the next step will be to place the documents before Parliament and the two Legislatures for ratification.

The agreements were signed Saturday afternoon in the historic Privy Council chamber of the East Block, where so many decisions momentous in the life of Canada have been reached. The signatures were written under the glare of electric flood lights as photographic records were taken of the ceremony.

Premier King and Hon. Charles Stewart, Minister of the Interior, signed for Canada. Mr. King signed in the absence of Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice. Premier Bracken and Hon. D. McKenna, Minister of Lands and Mines, signed for the Province of Manitoba. Premier J. E. Brownlee and Hon. George Hoadley signed for the Alberta Government.

"We are happy in the thought," said Premier Bracken on leaving the Privy Council chamber, "that this is the end of a sixty-year fight for equitable treatment."

"We go back to Manitoba with a perpetual subsidy from the federal resources, a cash adjustment for inequitable treatment prior to 1908, and with the finalization of resources under our control."

"It is a great load off my mind," said Hon. Charles Stewart. "For fifteen years I have been working with this end in view. Now that the agreement has been completed, I feel we have accomplished something very important."

COMMISSION FOR ALBERTA

Under the agreements Manitoba gets its natural resources, retaining its annual subsidy of $562,000, which will be increased up to a maximum of $1,125,000 as its population increases, and a flat sum of $4,600,000 in payment for lands alienated previous to 1912. Alberta gets its natural resources back and receives the same subsidy as Manitoba, with the same provision for increases as the population increases. A commission will be appointed to investigate what further payment the province is entitled to in view of resources alienated. The commission will be composed of Mr. Justice W. F. A. Turgon of Saskatchewan, C. M. Bowman of Waterloo Ont., and Mayor Fred Osborne of Calgary.

NATIONAL PARKS
The great national parks in the province of Alberta remain the property of the Federal Government. They are described as Buffalo Park, Elk Island Park, Jasper, Nemiskab, Rocky Mountain, Watkey and the Wood Buffalo Reserve. The agreement provides that the natural resources, minerals, oil deposits, waterpowers, etc., in the parks are to be the property of the Federal Government, but the boundaries of some of the parks are to be altered so present mineral and power development, including Spray Lakes, will be outside the parks. It is understood there is no present intention of allowing exploitation of mineral areas in the parks. Premier Brownlee at the conclusion of his conference here, dealt briefly with the possibility of commercial mineral development. In the event of such development in the national parks, he said, the Federal Government and the province would refer the question of disposal of profits arising from such development, over and above the cost of running the parks, to a commission.

SCHOOL LANDS
The transfer of the school lands and school funds to the province makes no change in existing conditions except that the trusteeship for the funds is in the hands of the province instead of the Federal Government.
